"My first game at what was then Hemingway Stadium was in 1960 when Ole Miss played LSU, and I had never been more excited than I was that day. Of course, the stadium is much larger and more impressive now than when I played. I love the on-campus experience at Ole Miss, starting with The Grove, the team taking the short walk to the stadium and the overall atmosphere of gameday."

- Archie Manning

THE SEASON

Every week during the fall, Ole Miss gives fans an incredible in-depth view into the program with its Emmy award-winning television program, "The Season: Ole Miss Football."

The show debuts each Wednesday night at 6 p.m. CT during football season on YouTube, Facebook, and at OleMissSports.com. The 30-minute docuseries was also the first school-produced program to air on national television. For the eighth straight year, "The Season" will be shown on ESPNU as well several local affiliates.

Not only does "The Season" give you the highlights of the previous week's game, but it takes you into the locker room, training room, practice fields and classrooms from the viewpoint of the Rebel student-athletes and coaches. The Ole Miss sports production staff also takes you inside the players' houses, hangouts and hometowns for a truly intimate experience.

The show has picked up numerous awards since its creation in 2011, including Southeast Regional Emmy awards in 2014 and 2015 for best daily or weekly sports program and a Gold AVA Award in 2012 for outstanding achievement by creative professionals involved in the concept, direction, design and production of media. In June of 2018, the show received two Southeast Regional Emmys for Short Form Editing and Photography.

Since Associate Athletics Director for Sports Productions and Creative Services Micah Ginn took the reins as creative director for Ole Miss Sports Productions in 2011, his staff has amassed a total of 18 Emmy awards among 66 nominations.

The team behind "The Season" includes Senior Producer/Directors Scott Wyant (Lead Director) and Ryan Cochran; Videographers/Editors Zack Flowers, Danielle Ramos, Shea Bessette and Blake Sevenbergen.

- Chucky Mullins

CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARD

Roy Lee "Chucky" Mullins was born on July 8, 1969, in Russellville, Alabama. After his mother's death when he was in the seventh grade, and at his request, Chucky was placed under the guardianship of Carver and Karen Phillips.

Chucky graduated from Russellville High School in 1988. He earned all-conference, all-area and all-state honors in football as a junior and senior. He was team captain and most valuable player on his high school team. He also earned three letters in football, basketball and baseball.

Because of his athletic and leadership abilities, Chucky was awarded a four-year scholarship to Ole Miss, and he arrived on campus in the summer of 1988. He was redshirted in 1988 but later saw action as a "nickel" defensive back for the Rebels and was rapidly emerging as a defensive force in the Southeastern Conference.

Tragically, his injury on Oct. 28, 1989, in the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt ended his football career and left him paralyzed. He was treated at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis until February 1990, when he was transferred to Spain Rehabilitation Center in Birmingham.

Chucky's battle with his physical disability and his undefeatable spirit changed the University of Mississippi. For months after the tragic accident, Chucky endured the grueling challenges of rehabilitation.

During the difficult time, Chucky's gritty determination and positive spirit touched the lives of literally hundreds of people. More than a million dollars was raised for the Chucky Mullins Trust Fund. He was visited in the hospital and later at home by such stars as Walter Payton, Janet Jackson and President George Bush. Chucky's accident and his unbroken spirit transcended football. The people of Mississippi, the South and the entire United States rallied around this remarkable young man.

When Chucky returned to Oxford in August 1990 to begin living in the specially-equipped house built by the Trust Fund donations, he announced a determination to return to Ole Miss and pursue a degree. Against all odds, in January of 1991, he did return to the classroom. However, on May 1, 1991, as he prepared for class, he suddenly stopped breathing. Rushed to the hospital, he never regained consciousness and died five days later from complications resulting from a blood clot.

While Chucky did not have a long life, it was a particularly special one. His teammates and coaches said Chucky was a teacher. He taught others how to live their lives to the fullest and how to maintain their focus on the truly important aspects of a precious life. In the state of Mississippi, Chucky Mullins will be forever young and never forgotten.

Mullins remained a big part of the Ole Miss team up until his death. Above he is interviewed by the late Ole Miss football sideline reporter Stan Sandroni.

In the spring of 1990, the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity at Ole Miss initiated the Chucky Mullins Courage Award to be given each season to an outstanding defensive player, who is chosen by the Rebel coaching staff.

Each award recipient receives a framed Mullins jersey and has the opportunity to wear Mullins' No. 38 on the field the following season.

The 2025 recipient was senior linebacker Tyler Banks, as announced during fall camp.

In 2006, the number was officially retired, joining Archie Manning's No. 18 as the only retired numbers in the Rebels' storied football history at that time. A 38 patch, rather than the jersey number, was worn from 2006 until 2010. The decision was made in March 2011 for the jersey to remain retired and be worn only by the Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner each year. Beginning with the 2021 season, the player bestowed with the illustrious honor is given the choice between switching their jersey number to No. 38 for the season or retaining their current number and adding a No. 38 patch to the jersey.

On Sept. 26, 2014, Coliseum Drive on the Ole Miss campus was renamed Chucky Mullins Drive, honoring his life and influence in the most visible and enduring way.

Dignitaries such as President George H. W. Bush visited Mullins while he was in the hospital.

"THE HOLY GRAIL OF TAILGATING SITES"
THE SPORTING NEWS
Ole Miss

THE GROVE

When Billy Brewer became head football coach at Ole Miss in 1983, he was searching for a way to allow his team to experience the atmosphere and pageantry Rebel fans enjoyed in The Grove while tailgating on gameday. The Grove is a 10-acre grassy plot of ground in the center of campus that is heavily shaded by large oak trees.

Taking a different route two hours before kickoff each home game, Brewer would walk with the team from Kinard Hall, the athletic dormitory, across campus to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

In 1985, Brewer started going the same route each Saturday as the team would enter The Grove on the east side of the Student Union and proceed down a sidewalk that runs through The Grove. Ole Miss fans fight for position on both sides of the sidewalk and greet the players with loud cheers. The braver fans even reach out and touch the players as they pass before them.

In the fall of 1998, a "Walk of Champions" arch was erected on the east side of The Grove, where the Rebel players begin their walk for every Saturday home game. The "Walk of Champions" arch was given to the University by the 1962 Rebel football team, which is the only squad in Ole Miss football history to finish a campaign with a perfect record (10-0). The 1962 team won the SEC title and was also named National Champion by the Litkenhous, Billingsley and Sagarin ratings.

What has become a tradition on Ole Miss football Saturdays continues under head coach Pete Golding.

The Grove and Ole Miss produce one of the most unique college football experiences in the South and nationwide. Sporting News ranked it among college football's greatest traditions and described The Grove as "the Holy Grail of tailgating sites." In listing America's top sports colleges, Sports Illustrated named Ole Miss the nation's No. 1 tailgating school.

The Grove has twice played host to one of college football's great traditions, ESPN's College Gameday, which visited Ole Miss' campus for the first time in 2014 for the Rebels' matchup with Alabama and returned in 2021 as Ole Miss faced Texas A&M.

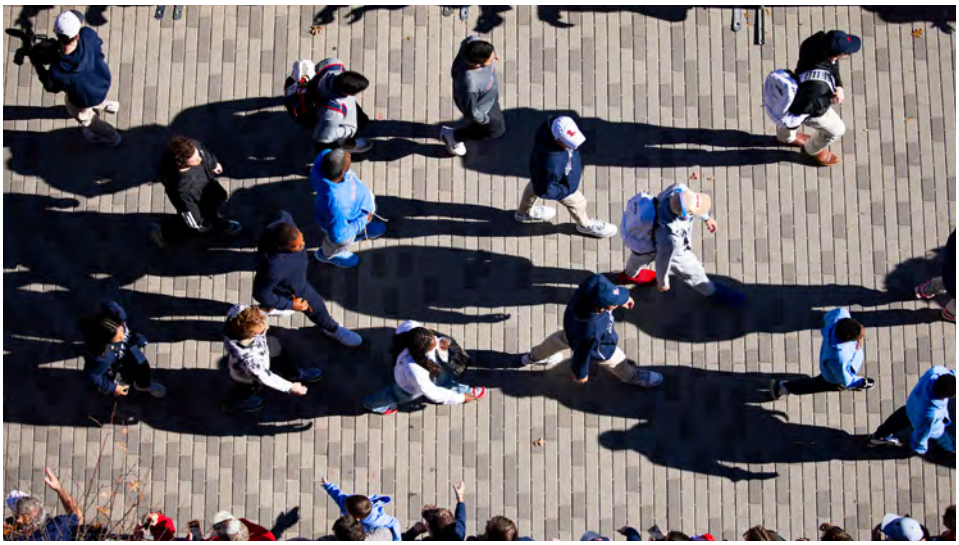
"I've been at ESPN 27 years and I've always wanted to come to this place, The Grove. It's the most beautiful place I've ever been."
- Lee Corso, ESPN College GameDay (Oct. 4, 2014)

- Nation's No. 1 Tailgating School (Sports Illustrated)
- Top Tailgating Spot (Tailgater Monthly)
- "The Holy Grail of tailgating sites" (The Sporting News)
- "The mother and mistress of outdoor ritual mayhem" (New York Times)
- "The mecca of tailgating in American sports" (Columbia Missourian)
- "In Oxford lies the most magical place on all of God's green, football-playing Earth: the Grove." (SI on Campus)

"I can say in definitive terms that there isn't a better place to spend a college football Saturday than at The Grove, followed by an SEC battle at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium."
- Mel Kiper Jr., ESPN

WALK OF CHAMPIONS

Rebel players and coaches have paraded through The Grove and been greeted by thousands of admirers approximately two hours before each football game since 1983.



OLE MISS TRADITIONS

OLE MISS

The University's nickname — Ole Miss — became part of the institution over 100 years ago, in 1896, when it was selected in a contest held to identify a new student publication, the yearbook. It was suggested by Miss Elma Meek of Oxford. Each succeeding issue of the annual has been given this copyrighted identity. The name gradually became synonymous with the University and is now a treasured segment of University history. The late Frank E. Everett, Jr., B.A. '32, LLB '34, put it best when he wrote:

"There is a valid distinction between The University and Ole Miss even though the separate threads are closely interwoven.

The University is buildings, trees and people. Ole Miss is mood, emotion and personality. One is physical, and the other is spiritual. One is tangible, and the other intangible.

The University is respected, but Ole Miss is loved. The University gives a diploma and regretfully terminates tenure, but one never graduates from Ole Miss."

REBELS

The name REBELS emerged as Ole Miss' official athletic nickname in 1936. Suggested by Judge Ben Guider of Vicksburg, it was one of five entries submitted to Southern sports writers for final selection from a list totaling more than 200 proposed nicknames. The promotion was a contest sponsored by The Mississippian, the student newspaper. Of the 42 newsmen contacted, 21 responded. "Rebels" was the choice of 18. The University Athletic Committee made the name official with the Committee chairman, the late Judge William Hemingway, stating: "If 18 sports writers wish to use 'Rebels', I shall not rebel, so let it go 'Ole Miss Rebels.'"

RED & BLUE

In 1893, when Ole Miss' first football team was in training for a five-game season, Dr. A.L. Bondurant, organizer and manager-coach, later recalled that "the team had much discussion as to the colors that should be adopted, but it was finally suggested by the manager that the union of the Crimson of Harvard and the Navy Blue of Yale would be very harmonious, and that it was well to have the spirit of both of these good colleges." These were adopted as the football colors, and have since been adopted by the University as its athletic colors.

HOTTY TODDY

Universities have cheers. Ole Miss has Hotty Toddy. It's a feeling, ideal, fight song, prayer, verbal handshake and way of life, all rolled into one. Like that revered statue imploring us to "never quit," Hotty Toddy encapsulates the spirit of Ole Miss. Whether yelled on the way to a stadium before a game, or said to someone wearing an Ole Miss shirt as you pass them in the airport. If institutions and traditions make up the fabric of Ole Miss, the thread of Hotty Toddy holds them together. And you don't have to hear it to get it. Chucky had it. Those future Rebels buzzing The Grove stage before games have it. All our-student athletes live it. High schoolers aspire to it. Our Faculty and staff perfect it. At Ole Miss, we're constantly asking ourselves if we're ready, even though we already know the answer- a resounding yes. But where's the fun in keeping it to ourselves? So yell it. Feel it. And above all, live it. Hotty Toddy.

Are You Ready?
Hell Yeah! Damn Right!
Hotty Toddy, Gosh Almighty,
Who The Hell Are We? Hey!
Flim Flam, Bim Bam
Ole Miss By Damn!

FIGHT SONG • FORWARD REBELS

Forward Rebels, march to fame,
Hit that line and win this game,
We know that you'll fight it through,
For your colors Red and Blue --

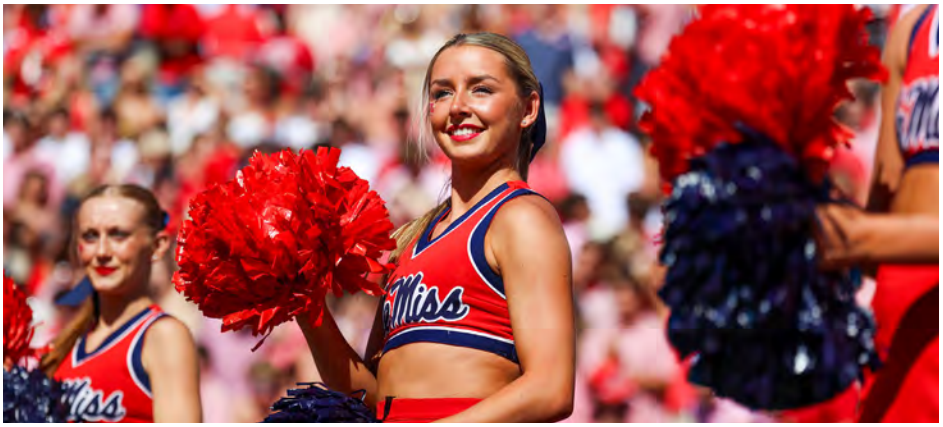
Fight, Fight, Fight.

Rebels you're the Southland's pride,
Take that ball and hit your stride,
Don't stop 'till the victory's won,
For your Ole Miss.
Fight, fight for your Ole Miss.

OLE MISS TRADITIONS

THE PRIDE OF THE SOUTH

Organized in 1928, the Ole Miss Band - The Pride of the South - performs in concert and in support of Ole Miss Athletics events. The Ole Miss Band offers competitive scholarships for students of every major in the University. Before every home game, The Pride of the South gathers at the Grove stage and performs its traditional pre-game routine.



OLE MISS CHEER & REBELETTES

At the heart of Ole Miss football gameday pageantry are the Ole Miss spirit squads. When you see the Ole Miss cheerleaders and Rebelettes link arms to Lock the Vaught, you'll know it's game time in Oxford.

LOCK THE VAUGHT

Students and fans lock arms and sway back and forth before the opening kickoff at home football games in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. It is an intimidating display directed at the visiting team as the Rebels take the field.

LANDSHARK / FINS UP

At Ole Miss, "Landshark" is a term that was adopted by the Rebel defense. Following a big play, Ole Miss defenders are likely to throw their hand up to their helmet in the "Fins Up" gesture. The gesture is an homage to former Rebel and Landshark defense originator Tony Fein (pictured right). A two-year spark plug for the Rebel defense from 2008-09 and a United States Army veteran of the Iraq War, Fein tragically passed away in 2009. While its origins are rooted in Fein's legacy with the Rebel football program, the "Fins Up" gesture has since become a rallying cry across all sports at Ole Miss.

ALMA MATER

Way down south in Mississippi
There's a spot that ever calls

Where among the hills enfolded
Stand ole Alma Mater's halls

Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whisp'ring southern breeze

There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts' fond memories.

With united hearts we praise thee,
All our loyalty in thine,

And we hail thee, Alma Mater,
May thy light forever shine;

May it brighter grow and brighter
And with deep affection true,
Our thoughts shall ever cluster 'round thee,
Dear old Red and Blue.

May thy fame throughout the nation,
Thru thy sons and daughters grow,

May thy name forever waken,
In our hearts a tender glow,

May thy counsel and thy spirit
Ever keep us one in this,

That our own shall be thine honor,
Now and ever, dear Ole Miss.

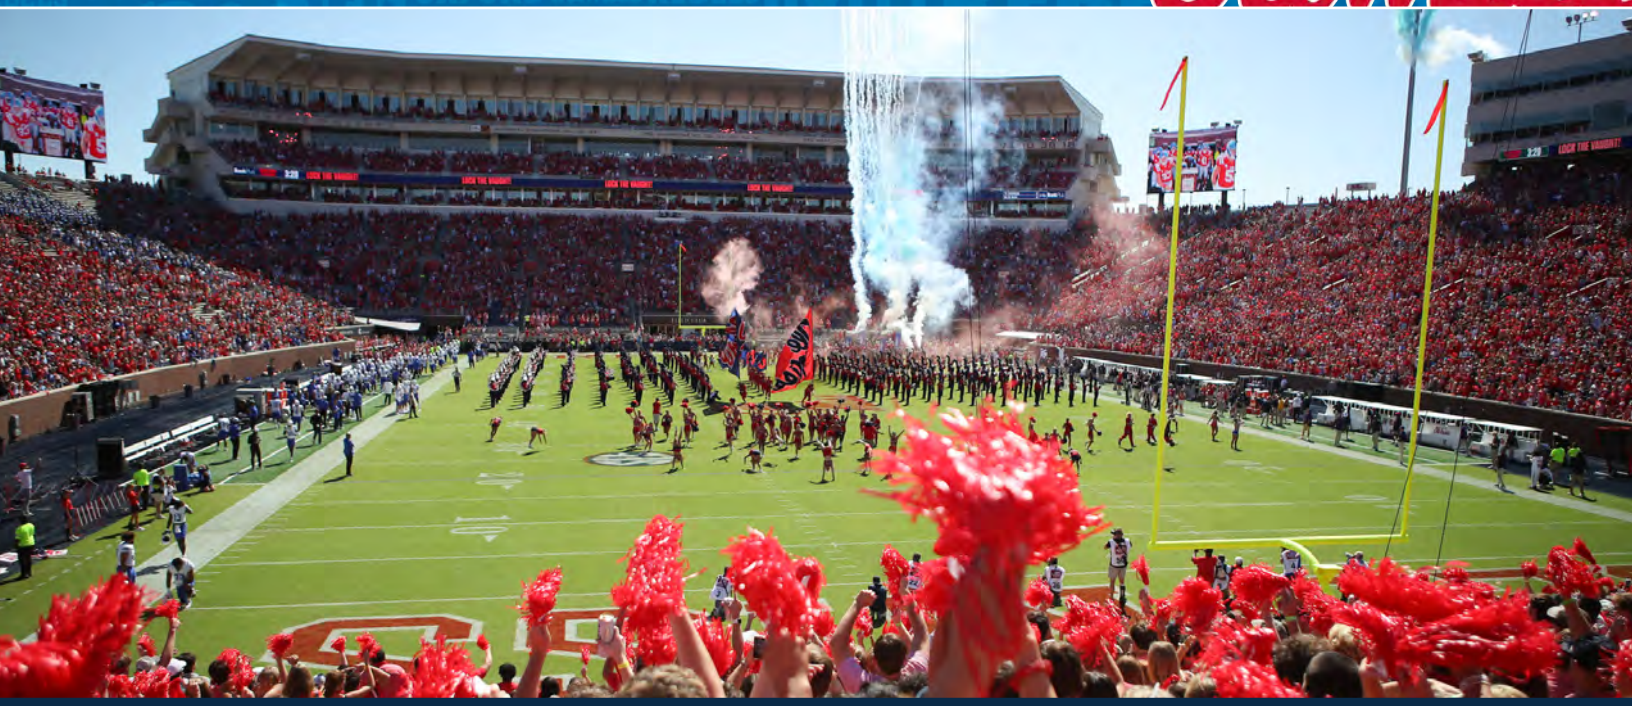
HOME OF THE OLE MISS REBELS



VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM / HOLLINGSWORTH FIELD

On the southeast side of the University of Mississippi campus stands historic Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, a landmark of Ole Miss tradition and an anchor for the strong future of Rebel Football.

The stadium has received several upgrades through the years and debuted a significant expansion in 2016 that increased the capacity to 64,038, making Vaught-Hemingway the largest stadium in the state of Mississippi.

The facelift provided Rebel fans with an even greater gameday atmosphere and more seating. The north side of the stadium was closed in to provide additional student seating and transformed into an exciting new "front door." The Lloyd Bell Tower, the north plaza and the Jake Gibbs Letterwinner Walk were all added in the fall of 2017.

Other enhancements included a new videoboard and sound system, stadium lights, as well as a natural grass playing surface returning to Hollingsworth Field for the first time since 2002.

For its efforts in stadium enhancements, Ole Miss was one of 10 facilities (pro or collegiate) to earn the 2017 Facility of Merit Award.

As part of the $200 million Forward Together capital campaign, the south end zone was also renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites were all refinished for the 2015 season.

Upgrades for the 2013 season included the removal of sideline platforms and bricking the east and west side facade, as well as a team halftime locker room and the addition of on-field suites.

From 2009-15, the playing surface was FieldTurf synthetic grass. It was natural grass from its beginning until 1970, Astroturf from 1970-84, natural grass again from 1985-2002 and AstroPlay synthetic from 2003-08.

The stadium increased its capacity to 60,580 in 2002 with the bowling in of the south end zone.

With the additional seating, the Rebels have set record-breaking attendance figures over the past decade, with each of the top-10 crowds in Ole Miss football history coming since 2016. That includes a remarkable seven top-10 attendance figures during the 2024 campaign alone, highlighted by each of the top-five crowds ever and topped by a record 68,126 on-hand to witness Ole Miss' historic upset over No. 2 Georgia.

The stadium, known as Hemingway Stadium for much of its existence, began its historic life in 1915 when students at the University helped in the construction of the first football grandstand at the site of the present field. The construction of the stadium and its permanent foundation was a three-year (1939-41), federally-sponsored project. Stadium capacity was originally listed at 24,000.

During the summer of 1988, the stadium received a major facelift, highlighted by a new press box, new aluminum sideline seating and a club level section for 700 people.

Renovations continued in the summer of 1990 when lights were added to the stadium. A Sony JumboTron scoreboard/message center was added for the 1997 season.

In 1998, the Guy C. Billups Rebel Club Seating area was completed, placing an upper deck on the east side of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The addition, which includes a special seating section with an enclosed concession and lounge area, pushed capacity to over 50,000.

The stadium is named for the late Judge William Hemingway (1869-1937), a professor of law and longtime chairman of the University's Committee on Athletics. On Oct. 16, 1982, John Howard Vaught saw his name added to the stadium. Vaught compiled a 190-61-12 record as head football coach at Ole Miss and brought the Rebels National Championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. At the 1998 season opener vs. Memphis, the field was named in honor of Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth for his continuing generous support to Ole Miss Athletics.

The gameday atmosphere on the Ole Miss campus is second to none, and fans have shown their loyalty with record-setting crowds. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field has been filled to capacity over the past decade, producing each of the 10 largest single-game crowds in school history since 2024 alone. The north end zone increased capacity to 64,038, making it the largest stadium in Mississippi.

The north end zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium was closed in 2016, and the entire north side of the stadium was transformed into an exciting new "front door" for Ole Miss Athletics. Fans were then introduced to a new plaza, bell tower and green space at the north side of the stadium that connects with the Walk of Champions and leads all the way from The Grove, site of the nation's best and most unique tailgating experience. Stadium enhancements in 2016 also included new videoboards, sound system, stadium lights and a natural grass playing field for the first time since 2002. The south end zone was also renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites have been refinished.

MANNING CENTER

In the ever-expanding college football arms race, Ole Miss has joined the nation's elite with the recent $45 million renovation to the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center. The renovation, which began in January 2022 and was completed in July 2023, expanded the current space from 181,500 square feet to 221,000, bringing a pro mindset to the Rebel football program.

Ole Miss now trains in the 10,710-square-foot Ririe Family Weight Room, including a cardio mezzanine, yoga/pilates space, state-of-the-art technology, fueling stations and offices for the nutrition staff. The training room also expanded and features additional recovery benefits, including hydrotherapy, massage therapy, compression units, two sensory deprivation tanks, cold and hot tubs, new concussion rehabilitation technology and counseling space for mental health and nutrition consultations.

The Van Devender Family Foundation Locker Room received a complete makeover and was expanded to include a barber shop, hydro tanks, plunge pools, a players' lounge and fueling station.

Renovation began on the $45 million Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center in January 2022 and was completed in July 2023.

All new office spaces were built, including separate offensive and defensive team meeting rooms, named for the McKnight Family, to supplement the existing Roland and Sheryl Burns Team Meeting Room. Office layouts were streamlined for offensive, defensive, analytics and recruiting staffs, as well as a renovated head coach's office.

The equipment room was expanded as well, along with an ESPN/SEC Network bureau cam room, a photo and video studio and a media workroom. Near the new Moore Family Theater Room, the renovated Williams-Reed Foyer welcomes visitors to the Ole Miss football headquarters and the Gina and Chip Crunk Grill at 1810 remains to feed the Rebels.

HEALTH & SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Ole Miss launched the unique and comprehensive Health and Sports Performance program in July 2012, which takes a holistic approach to providing optimal health care for the demands of elite student-athletes. Through a complete collaboration between all services provided in the Health and Sports Performance model, Ole Miss is ensured not only healthy student-athletes, but ones that can achieve peak performance. These services include strength and conditioning, athletic training, team physicians, physical therapy, massage therapy, sports psychology and sports nutrition.

Ole Miss Health and Sports Performance has strong working relationships with student health services, local physicians, a team of orthopedic surgeons and Baptist Memorial Hospital-North Mississippi, which is located just miles from the Oxford campus. The department also taps into its own University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson for world-class treatment from multiple specialties including orthopedics, neurology and cardiology.

Ole Miss' athletic trainers begin treatment and rehabilitation as early as 6 a.m. and are available until the last student-athlete is finished with practice or competition. There are currently six athletic training facilities on campus with the two main athletic training rooms located in the Starnes Athletic Training Center and the Manning Center. In addition, there are four satellite athletic training rooms located in The SJB Pavilion at Ole Miss, Tuohy Basketball Center, Gillom Sports Center and Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

The main athletic training rooms are stocked with equipment such as digital x-ray systems, stationary bikes, laser therapy equipment, therapeutic modalities, underwater treadmills and Biodex testing equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athletes the best care but also aid in returning them to competition as quickly and safely as possible.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

The mission of the strength and conditioning program is to prepare athletes to adapt and thrive under the stress load of practicing and competing in football - with specific consideration of relevant biomotor abilities, metabolic demands, psychological factors and injury risk associated with the sport.

We will demand discipline, relentlessness and intelligent effort while we work toward improving each athlete's skill level. We will cultivate a high-energy, up-tempo environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish. We will attack this mission with a scientifically supported, comprehensive approach and specific considerations of the metabolic demands and injury risks of our sport.

Top priority is to improve high speed, loaded and unloaded, with total body coordination and mechanical efficiency. We will imitate the demands of football by striving to produce as many maximal or near maximal contractions as often as possible in training. Our team must be conditioned to handle and thrive at a relentless, up-tempo pace. Everything we do in training is done to help the athletes more efficiently execute the movement requirements of their sport. We will demand discipline, intensity and intelligent effort while we work towards improving physical capabilities. We will cultivate a high energy environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish.

The environment in the weight room must be one of high effort, intensity and excitement. An attitude will be established through training that will carry over onto the playing field. Discipline, hard work and vigor will become permanent traits of the athletes.

There are no greater facilities at which to train athletes than the majestic and newly-renovated Manning Center, which was recently expanded from 181,500 to 221,000 total square feet in a state-of-the-art remodeling of the building that houses the Ole Miss football team and staff. Included in those renovations completed in July 2023 is a 10,710-square-foot weight room with a cardio mezzanine, yoga/pilates space, state-of-the-art technology, fueling stations and offices for the nutrition staff. The training room also expands and features additional recovery benefits, including hydrotherapy, massage therapy, compression units, two sensory deprivation tanks, cold and hot tubs, new concussion rehabilitation technology and counseling space for mental health and nutrition consultations.

With the Manning Center's full-sized indoor practice field, the Rebels' extensive workouts touch on every area of fitness and conditioning and prepare their bodies fully for intense SEC battles.

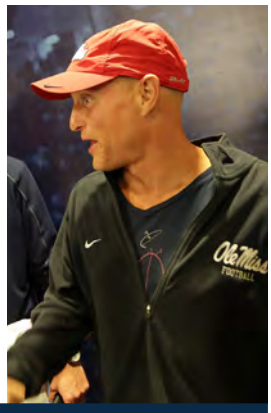
OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Touted as the "Cultural Mecca of the South," creativity abounds in Oxford as musicians, artists and writers alike find inspiration in Oxford's rich history, small-town charm and creative community. Nobel Prize winning author William Faulkner made his home here and many have followed in his footsteps. Oxford is also known for its exceptional culinary experiences at the many restaurants, from down-home cooking to upscale creations.

"The boys were extremely excited to come to Oxford. I think as a ballclub, with our players and all of the parents talking, I think we are falling in love with Oxford, the people here, how we are being treated and the hospitality. I think we are going to have a lot of people rooting for Ole Miss in every sport down the road after the experience they have given us here."

- Mike Gambino, Boston College baseball coach (at the 2016 NCAA Oxford Regional)



Ole Miss sporting events regularly attract such celebrities as movie stars Morgan Freeman and Woody Harrelson.

In addition to the popular Double Decker Arts Festival that brings thousands of visitors to Oxford each April, the town's thriving music scene has welcomed such acts as Morgan Wallen (pictured), Snoop Dogg, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Brad Paisley, Zac Brown Band, Thomas Rhett, Three 6 Mafia, Jason Isbell and Wilco. Artists that have recorded in Oxford include the Counting Crows, Gavin DeGraw, Ben Folds, the Hives, Jars of Clay and Modest Mouse. Oxford's Lyric has been named one of the top 100 music club venues in the world by Pollstar, the leading concert industry trade publication.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

The people of Oxford offer tremendous support to the Ole Miss athletics teams, and the Rebel student-athletes return that support by being actively involved in both the Oxford and University communities. Among the worthwhile activities that Ole Miss student-athletes regularly participate in are assisting with reading programs at local schools such as "Reading with the Rebels," visiting patients in area hospitals, being mentors to elementary school students, visiting senior adults at local retirement centers, holding several "Meet the Rebels" days throughout the year, and giving numerous talks on subjects such as drug awareness and staying in school to area students. Additionally, over recent spring breaks, members of the football team have done mission work in such locales as Panama, Haiti and the Mississippi Delta.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics. Through the office for Student-Athlete Development, Ole Miss has made great strides in improving the environment for student-athletes with numerous full-time academic counselors, learning specialists and tutors, and the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center provides the perfect environment for learning.

Ole Miss has a long history of academic success among its football players, with 25 Academic All-America selections, such as Super Bowl winning quarterback, Eli Manning. Most recently, former quarterback Jaxson Dart (pictured) was a finalist for the NFF William V. Campbell Trophy, colloquially known as the "Academic Heisman."

FEDEX STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

Since May 2007, Ole Miss student-athletes have benefitted tremendously from their first-class on-campus learning environment: the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center.

The center provides state-of-the-art computer facilities and space for study halls and tutoring for men and women student-athletes, as well as additional classrooms for all students.

The 22,500-square-foot building now houses the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support, including offices, conference rooms, 20 large and small group tutoring rooms, a large study area, a multi-media classroom, computer lab and 150-seat high-tech auditorium. The project was completed in May 2007 with an approximate cost of $5 million.

In addition to this gift to the University, FedEx supports several endowed scholarship programs, the Whitten Chair in Law, the Lott Leadership Institute, the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation and William Faulkner's historic home, Rowan Oak.

HEAD COACH PETE GOLDING

Pete Golding was named the 40th head coach in Ole Miss football history on Nov. 30, 2025 following the regular season. He guided the Rebels to a 2-1 mark in the College Football Playoffs en route to a semifinal run and a 13-2 final record.

Golding took over one of the Southeastern Conferences' top teams of the 2020s after a brilliant career as a defensive guru in the SEC over the last eight years. During that span, Golding helped lead his teams to eight consecutive seasons of 10 or more wins, including a home record of 54-2. Since 2018, Golding owned an SEC record of 55-11, winning six College Football Playoff games, three SEC titles, a National Championship in 2020, while going 13-3 in postseason play. Since arriving in Oxfordin 2023, Golding has orchestrated several dominant Ole Miss defenses, including a school-record pass rush in 2024, and with the Rebels he has mentored eight NFL Draft picks.

He was immediately put to the test as Ole Miss' leader during its first-ever College Football Playoff appearance just weeks into his tenure. The Rebels earned a first round home game in the CFP, a dominant 41-10 rematch win over 11-seed Tulane that setup another rematch for Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl against Georgia. This time, the Rebels had destiny on their side, clawing back from a nine-point halftime deficit to cap off one of the most iconic wins in Ole Miss football history, 39-34.

In the CFP Semifinals against Miami, the Rebels and Hurricanes battled to the bitter end, but a late drive by Miami ended the storybook season for both Golding and the Rebels.

Golding – who owns nearly two decades of defensive coaching experience – cut his teeth in the SEC as a key member of Nick Saban's powerful Alabama squads as Saban's defensive coordinator from 2018-22, which included three SEC titles in 2018, '20 and '21, as well as a national title with the Crimson Tide in 2020.

During his time as Ole Miss' defensive coordinator since 2023, Golding has transformed the defensive mentality of the Rebels into one of the SEC's better units. In his Ole Miss career, Golding's defenses have stuffed opponents to just 18.5 points and 330.8 yards per game (210.4 passing, 120.4 rushing) while tallying up nearly three sacks and seven tackles for loss a game alongside 31 total interceptions, 27 forced fumbles and 19 fumble recoveries.

This season, Golding has mentored Ole Miss to one of the SEC's top pass defenses, yielding only 182.6 yards per game (SEC No. 3, FBS No. 20), while also ranking FBS top-25 in both fourth-down defense (ninth, .360) and scoring defense (25th, 20.1 ppg).

Golding had the unenviable task of replacing one of the greatest defenses in Ole Miss history, but his 2025 Rebels have been productive from both the transfer portal and high school ranks alike. Top returners and junior linebackers TJ Dottery and Suntarine Perkins lead the team in tackles, owning a combined 124 stops and 11.0 tackles for loss, but the underclass of powerful sophomore linemen Kam Franklin (6.5 TFL, 3.5 sacks) and Will Echoles (6.0 TFL, 3.5 sacks) – as well as team-leading transfer Princewill Umanmielen (7.5 TFL, 5.5 sacks) – has proven just as talented at causing mayhem in the backfield.

Golding put together one of the best all-around defenses in Ole Miss history in 2024, highlighted by one of the nation's most feared rush defenses and pass rush attacks. The Rebels led the nation in sacks (52) and tackles for loss (120), with both standing as new program records. The Ole Miss defense stifled opponents to just 80.5 rushing yards per game, which ended the season ranked second in the FBS and was the fewest allowed by a Rebel defense since 1966.

Ole Miss held nine of its 13 opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing, six below 50 yards -- including a Gator Bowl record 44 yards allowed to Duke to close the season. Only two Rebel opponents broke 400 yards of total offense, while the Rebels held five to fewer than 300.

Leading the charge were first team All-Americans defensive tackle Walter Nolen and linebacker Chris Paul Jr., who were both among a seven-round NFL Draft record eight selections for Ole Miss. Nolen, the 14th consensus All-American in program history, was the first Rebel selected in the first round at No. 16 overall to the Arizona Cardinals, while other defensive draftees included cornerback Trey Amos (Round 2, Washington Commanders), defensive end Princely Umanmielen (Round 3, Carolina Panthers), Paul Jr. (Round 5, Los Angeles Rams) and defensive tackle JJ Pegues (Round 6, Las Vegas Raiders).

With the Rebels in 2023, Golding's new defensive scheme helped propel Ole Miss to its first 11-win season in program history. The Landshark D led the SEC and ranked fifth in the FBS in turnover margin at +11 and stifled SEC defenses, holding Arkansas (288), Auburn (275) and Vanderbilt (229) to fewer than 300 total yards in consecutive games -- the first such streak at Ole Miss within the same season since 1993.

Golding's squad was well-rounded, ranking within the top-35 nationally in sacks (19th, 2.7/game), TFL (29th, 6.3/game), passes intercepted (25th, 13 INTs) and scoring defense (34th, 22.1 PPG). Those 13 picks were the most by a Rebel defense since 2015, and the 35 Rebel sacks helped give Ole Miss at least 35 sacks in three straight seasons for the first time in program history.

The 2023 defense was led by three NFL Draft picks -- corner Deantre Prince (fifth round), edge Cedric Johnson (sixth round) and safety Daijahn Anthony (seventh round) -- as well as other returning stalwarts like defensive end and Peach Bowl Defensive MVP Jared Ivey, veteran safeties John Saunders Jr. and Trey Washington, and star freshman linebacker Suntarine Perkins.

In his five seasons leading the Crimson Tide defense, Alabama ranked top-20 in the FBS in scoring defense every year and finished top-10 in either scoring or total defense four times.

The 2022 Alabama defense again proved to be one of the best in the nation, ranking ninth in scoring defense (18.2) and 13th in total defense (318.2 ypg). The Crimson Tide allowed just 4.6 yards per play last season, which led the SEC and ranked No. 4 nationally.

Two-time Bronko Nagurski Trophy winner Will Anderson Jr., anchored Golding's defense the last several seasons. Anderson became the first Alabama player ever to earn unanimous All-America honors after leading the SEC and finishing No. 11 in the country in sacks (10.0).

Alabama ranked fourth in rushing defense (86.0 ypg) and seventh in total defense (304.1 ypg) in 2021, while allowing just 20.1 points per game and holding opponents for a 31.1 percent conversion rate on third down, which was seventh nationally. Middle linebacker Henry To'oTo'o led the team with 112 tackles, while Anderson set the NCAA record (since 2000) for tackles for loss in a season with 34.5.

Golding's 2020 defense led the SEC in scoring (19.0 ppg) and got better as the season progressed, allowing just 15 points per game over the final nine contests en route to the national championship. The Tide ranked third in the league in total defense and rushing defense while the pass efficiency defense also led the league and ranked 18th nationally.

Golding's unit was devastated by injuries in 2019 and forced the staff into starting two true freshmen at the mike and will positions in the Tide's base 3-4 scheme. Alabama still managed a top-20 defense, limiting opponents to just 324.4 yards and 18.6 points per game.

Alabama's defense finished the 2018 season ranked third nationally in scoring (18.1 ppg) and 16th in total defense (319.5 ypg). The rushing defense was 19th nationally (121.3 ypg) while the pass efficiency defense ranked 23rd. Alabama also ranked 10th nationally in sacks per game at 3.0.

Prior to Alabama, Golding coached cornerbacks and handled defensive coordinator duties at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2016 and 2017. Golding's 2017 defense at UTSA ranked seventh in the Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing just 287.8 yards per game. The Roadrunners finished eighth in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), second in first downs defense (166) and 19th in pass efficiency defense (112.19).

In his first season with the Roadrunners in 2016, Golding helped lead the program to six wins and its first bowl game – the 2016 Gildan New Mexico Bowl. His defense set several school records, including single-season standards for tackles (934), TFLs (77), sacks (27) and QB hurries (38).

Golding joined the UTSA staff after spending two years as an assistant at Southern Miss where he coached the safeties. The Golden Eagles posted a six-win improvement in his second season, finishing 9-5 overall with a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl while winning the Western Division of Conference USA.

Prior to his time in Hattiesburg, Golding was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Southeastern Louisiana for two seasons (2012-13). He helped guide the Lions' program to a school-record 11 wins and its first conference title (Southland) since 1961 with a 7-0 league record.

Before heading to Hammond, Golding was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Delta State from 2010-11, leading the Statesman to the 2010 NCAA Division II National Championship Game and the Gulf South Conference title.

He also spent three years on staff at Division II Tusculum, coaching the defensive backs while coordinating the defense the final two years as the Pioneers developed into a record-setting defensive unit under his direction.

Golding began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after starting four seasons at safety for the Statesmen (2002-05). Golding graduated from Delta State in 2005 with a degree in business.

Assistant Coach • Offensive Coordinator

4th Season at Ole Miss

John David Baker returned to Oxford in December 2025 for his second stint with the Rebels and currently serves as offensive coordinator.

Baker served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the last two seasons (2024-25) at East Carolina.

In his second full year coordinating the ECU offense, Baker orchestrated a Pirate offense that ranked No. 15 in total offense (460.4 yards per game), and No. 31 in scoring offense (32.7 points per game). He helped Katin Houser blossom into one of the American's elite quarterbacks under Baker's direction, completing 66 percent of his passes for 3,300 yards, 19 touchdowns, and just six interceptions, while adding nine rushing touchdowns in 2025.

The 2024 Broyles Award Nominee oversaw an offensive in his first year at East Carolina that stood among the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) leaders (Top 30) in five categories including 3rd down conversion percentage (24th/0.451), total offense per game (24th/436.4 ypg), passing yards per completion (26th/13.30) and passing offense (27th/264.0 pg). In 2024, he helped the Pirates (8-5, 5-3 AAC) to five wins over a six-game span which included a 26-21 come from behind victory over NC State in the 2024 Go Bowling Military Bowl in Annapolis, Md. On Dec. 28, 2024. The win was the first over a Power 4 team since 2018, when ECU topped North Carolina, 41-19.

His 2024 offensive unit ranked among the all-time greats in program history tallying 5,673 yards of total offense (fifth), averaged 436.4 yards of total offense per game (sixth), averaged 32.0 points per game (eighth) and threw for 3,432 yards (10th). During ECU's 5-1 run to close out the season, it scored 229 points (38.2 ppg) and 2,993 yards of total offense (498.8 pg) which included a stretch of four straight games with over 500 yards of total offense – a first in program history.

Prior to ECU, Baker spent three years on the Ole Miss coaching staff, serving in multiple roles: co-offensive coordinator (2022-23) and tight ends coach (2021-23).

In two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator, Baker has helped oversee an Ole Miss attack that has posted two of the top-five seasons in total offense in Ole Miss history. In 2022, the Rebel rushing attack broke the school record with 3,336 yards.

In his first season, Baker oversaw a lights-out passing attack from the Rebel offense. The Rebels led the SEC in total offense (492.5 ypg), led by a superb final season by quarterback Matt Corral, who left Ole Miss as one of its best signal callers of all time.

Baker was announced as Ole Miss' passing game coordinator and tight ends coach on Jan. 25, 2021 after spending the previous two seasons at USC, serving as tight ends coach in 2020.

Baker, who was named to 247Sports' 30Under30 in 2020, was an offensive quality control analyst for the Trojans during the 2019 season.

The San Angelo, Texas, native was an offensive quality control coach at North Texas for three seasons (2016-18). In 2018, UNT ranked No. 12 in passing (306.8), No. 20 in total offense (460.5) and No. 26 in scoring (34.6). Wide receiver Rico Bussey Jr. hauled in 68 passes for 1,017 yards with 12 TDs and running back DeAndre Torrey tallied 15 TDs on the ground.

North Texas ranked No. 19 nationally in scoring (35.5), No. 21 in passing (291.9) and No. 24 in total offense (455.1) in 2017. Quarterback Mason Fine set school season records for passing yards (4,052) and touchdowns (31).

The Mean Green qualified for bowl games each year that Baker was on staff (2016 Heart of Dallas, 2017 New Orleans, 2018 New Mexico).

Prior to North Texas, he was a graduate assistant at Abilene Christian, his alma mater, in 2014 and 2015, working with the quarterbacks.

Baker played quarterback for the Amarillo Venom indoor football team in 2014 (Lone Star Football League) and 2015 (Champions Indoor Football).

He played quarterback for four seasons (2010-13) at Abilene Christian. As a senior in 2013, Baker completed 247-of-369 passes (66.9%) for 3,376 yards and 35 TDs, with just five interceptions. Baker also rushed for 256 yards and five TDs. His 40 total TDs were a school record. In his first career start, he threw for a school-record seven touchdowns against Concordia College.

Baker received his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2014 and his master's degree in higher education in 2016, both from Abilene Christian.

He prepped at Lake View High (Texas) where he earned all-district honors in both football and baseball. Baker threw for 2,240 yards and 22 touchdowns and ran for 688 yards and 18 TDs his senior season.

Bryan Brown serves as defensive coordinator on Pete Golding's staff. He returned to Ole Miss in January 2024 as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach and enters his first season as the Rebels' defensive coordinator.

As co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2025, Brown helped lead one of the nation's top defensive units and guided the Rebels to the College Football Playoff semifinals. Ole Miss allowed just 21.9 points per game while forcing 15 turnovers, including nine interceptions and six fumble recoveries. Senior safety Wydett Williams Jr. anchored the secondary with three interceptions, 42 solo tackles and 10 pass breakups in 15 games. Up front, the Rebels' defensive line generated 33 sacks, and the defense turned in one of its best performances of the season by holding Tulane to just 10 points in the first round of the College Football Playoff.

Brown's defensive backs helped contribute to one of the best all-around defenses in Ole Miss history in 2024, highlighted by transfer Trey Amos, who went on to be a second-round NFL Draft selection of the Washington Commanders. Amos served as Ole Miss' lockdown corner, starting all 13 games as one of the premier pass defenders in the nation. Amos finished fifth on the team with 50 tackles and was tied for the team lead with three interceptions, led the team with 13 pass breakups – the most by a Rebel since 2015 – and added 3.5 TFL and one forced fumble.

Amos finished the season as the SEC leader in both total passes defended (16) and passes defended per game (1.23), which respectively ranked tied for third and fifth nationally. Amos also ranked second in the SEC and tied for seventh nationally in total pass breakups (13). Amos was PFF's No. 50 rated defender in all of college football last season at an 85.6 season grade, which ranked 12th in the SEC and fourth in the conference among cornerbacks.

Brown, a Mississippi native and four-year letterwinner for the Rebels from 2003 to 2006, returned to Oxford after spending the 2023 season at Cincinnati as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator for the Bearcats.

A multiple-time Broyles Award nominee, Brown led the Bearcats defense to rank inside the top five in the Big 12 in passing defense (225.8) and first downs defense (238) during the 2023 season. Brown coached sophomore defensive tackle Dontay Corleone who was named to the All-Big 12 second team, finishing with 39 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss and three sacks as a team captain in 2023.

Prior to arriving at Cincinnati, Brown spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator at Louisville. He was elevated to associate head coach in 2020. Taking over a defense that was ranked near the bottom of college football at UofL in 2018, Brown saw his troops improve dramatically during his tenure – culminating in one of the most prolific seasons in Louisville history in 2022.

Under Brown's tutelage, the Cardinals had undoubtedly one of the nation's best defenses in 2022, leading the nation in sacks (50) and fourth down defense (.190) and ranking third in takeaways (30), eighth in tackles for loss (97), No. 11 in scoring defense (19.2), No. 14 interceptions (15) and No. 24 in total defense (330.2). Five Cardinals' defenders earned all-conference accolades in 2022 and Louisville finished 8-5, earning a bid to its third bowl game in four years.

In 2021, the Cardinals doubled their interception total to 10, and cornerback Kei'Trel Clark earned All-ACC honors for the second-straight season.

Leading the Cards to a bowl appearance in 2019, Brown's impact was felt immediately as the defense improved by more than 10 points per game and helped the team win the Music City Bowl over Mississippi State. UofL went from two wins to eight wins in his first season with the Cardinals.

Brown came to Louisville after six seasons at Appalachian State where he coached cornerbacks from 2012 to 2018 and added defensive coordinator responsibilities his last year. The Mountaineers led the Sun Belt Conference in passing defense in 2018, 2017 and 2015.

In Brown's first year as the Mountaineers' defense coordinator, he helped lead the program to its third-straight Sun Belt title, a 10-2 record and a fourth consecutive bowl appearance in 2018.

Brown's 2018 defense ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense at 15.5 points per game, holding the opposition to 10 or fewer points in seven contests. Brown's unit also ranked fifth in the country in passing defense (162.1), No. 1 in big plays allowed and sixth in total defense (288.0).

From 2015 to 2018, the Mountaineers ranked second nationally in interceptions, picking off 70 passes over that span, and ranking in the Top 15 nationally each season.

Brown trained Clifton Duck, one of the top cornerbacks in App State history. Duck led the Sun Belt Conference in interceptions with six in 2017, which was tied for fourth most in the nation. He was a two-time All-Sun Belt first team performer, a freshman All-American and the league's 2016 Freshman of the Year.

Brown served as both a graduate assistant and defensive administrative assistant at his alma mater in Oxford during the 2010 and 2011 seasons. In those roles, he was responsible for all practice planning and game planning for the nickels and corners.

The Corinth, Mississippi, native spent time at Delta State in 2009 as a graduate assistant helping with cornerbacks.

Brown started his coaching career in 2008 at Rutgers serving in a professional development role. He assisted the Scarlet Knights' special teams units while also supporting in academic support services for the program.

During his four-year career at Ole Miss (2003-06), Brown totaled 70 career tackles with an interception return for a touchdown. He also played point guard on the Ole Miss basketball team in 2002.

Brown and his wife, Courtney, have a son, Bryson, and a daughter, Elle.

john GARRISON

Assistant Coach • Offensive Line/Running Game Coordinator

4th Season at Ole Miss

John Garrison joined the Ole Miss football program as offensive line coach and running game coordinator prior to the 2022 Texas Bowl, entering his fourth season with the Rebels and first as Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator.

As offensive line coach in 2025, Garrison helped orchestrate one of the most prolific offenses in program history. The Rebels set a school record with 7,345 total yards while leading the nation in total offense and passing offense with 4,700 passing yards. Ole Miss averaged 490.0 yards per game, the second-highest mark in the country, and scored 65 total touchdowns.

Garrison's line paved the way for one of the nation's top running backs in sophomore Kewan Lacy, who rushed for 1,567 yards and 24 touchdowns and earned First Team All-America and First Team All-SEC honors. Lacy was a finalist for both the Doak Walker Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award while recording seven 100-yard rushing performances, including one 200-yard game.

Garrison's offensive line unit blocked for a Rebel squad in 2024 that shattered program records in total offense (6,845), yards per play (7.3), passing yards (4,561) and passing yards per game (350.8). Anchoring the line were tackle Diego Pounds, who started each of the last nine games at left tackle, senior Reece McIntyre, who started all 13 games at center after years as a reserve lineman, and fellow senior Jeremy James, who broke the all-time Ole Miss record in career starts (52) before missing most of the campaign due to injury.

Garrison led an offensive line group in 2023 that paved the way for a high-flying Ole Miss offense that finished 13th nationally at 461.9 yards per game and 16th nationally at 35.1 points per game. The Rebel line was anchored by five seasoned vets of Victor Curne at left tackle, Quincy McGee at left guard, Caleb Warren at center, Jeremy James at right guard and Micah Pettus at right tackle before missing the remainder of the season due to injury sustained vs. Texas A&M. In the Peach Bowl, James tied the all-time Ole Miss career record in starts with 49 heading into his final season in 2024.

Garrison, who spent the previous four seasons at NC State, has over 15 years experience coaching at the collegiate level.

The Blue Springs, Missouri, native led a Wolfpack o-line in 2022 that featured two All-ACC selections in Grant Gibson and Chandler Zavala. Gibson recorded 38 pancake blocks in 10 games this season and allowed just two sacks in 643 total snaps while anchoring the Pack offensive line. Zavala registered 31 pancake blocks and allowed just 0.5 sacks in 747 snaps this season. Zavala was named a midseason All-American according to The Athletic and has started all 12 games this year at left guard.

From 2019 until 2021, Garrison helped mentor one of the most successful offensive lineman in NC State history. Ikem Ekwonu was a three-year starter for the Wolfpack and earned unanimous All-America accolades as a junior last season. A finalist for the Outland Trophy in 2021, Ekwonu was the first offensive player selected in the 2022 NFL Draft, as he was chosen sixth overall by the Carolina Panthers.

Under the guidance of Garrison, NC State ranked third in the ACC in 2021 allowing 25 sacks on the year, despite losing its starting left guard midway through the season.

Prior to NC State, Garrison spent the 2018 season as run game coordinator and offensive line coach for Kiffin at FAU. Garrison's 2018 FAU line ranked 13th in the FBS in sacks giving up just 1.17 sacks per game. The Owls also led Conference USA and ranked No. 14 in the FBS in rushing with 241.8 yards per contest.

Garrison also coordinated the run game and o-line at UNLV from 2015-17. In 2017, the Rebels finished 15th in the country in rushing and set the school record for fewest quarterback sacks allowed. During his first season in Las Vegas, the Rebel line helped the team post a dramatic improvement in the run game, finishing 36th in the nation in yards per game.

Garrison returned to Nebraska, his alma mater, for his first collegiate coaching position in 2008. He would go on to spend seven seasons with the Cornhuskers, beginning as an intern and then serving as offensive line coach in 2013 and 2014. Garrison's offensive line paved the way for All-American Ammer Abdullah, who rushed for more than 1,500 yards in both the 2013 and 2014 season.

In 2014, Garrison was honored for exceptional work on the recruiting trail for the Cornhuskers as Rivals.com tabbed him as one the nation's top 25 recruiters.

Garrison was a four-year letterman at Nebraska from 1999 to 2002, and earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades as a junior and senior. Garrison was Nebraska's starting long snapper as a true freshman in 1999, helping the Huskers to a 12-1 record and Big 12 title. He was a backup center and guard, and handled long snapping duties in 2000.

In 2001, Garrison moved into the lineup as the starting center and helped Nebraska to an appearance in the BCS National Championship Game, while quarterback Eric Crouch won the Heisman Trophy. In his senior season, Garrison was elected by his teammates as one of three co-captains.

Garrison graduated from Nebraska with a degree in secondary education in 2003. He and his wife, Jamie, have four children: Lilly, Jack, Valerie and Beau.

PERSONAL

- Named to 247 Sports' 30under30 list back-to-back seasons (2018, 2019).
- Tutored a SMU defensive line that helped lead the nation in sacks during the 2019 campaign.
- Coached Second Team All-AAC selection Delontae Scott, who recorded 18.0 TFL in 2019 for the second most in a single season in school history.
- Began his coaching career at his alma mater, SMU.
- Played in 50 games over four seasons for the Mustangs and was a semifinalist for the Campbell Trophy as a senior.

Randall Joyner has spent six seasons as defensive line coach with the Rebels and is entering his second season as Associate Head Coach.

In his first season as associate head coach and defensive line coach in 2025, Joyner led one of the nation's most disruptive defensive fronts. The Rebels recorded 33 sacks and 83.0 tackles for loss, including a four-sack performance against Miami in the College Football Playoff Semifinal.

Joyner coached a standout sophomore duo in defensive tackle Will Echoles and defensive end Kam Franklin. Echoles earned Fourth Team All-America honors while being named First Team All-SEC by the Associated Press, Second Team All-SEC by PFSN and Phil Steele, and Third Team All-SEC by the league's coaches. He totaled 11.5 tackles for loss and five sacks during the 2025 campaign. Franklin added 9.0 tackles for loss and five sacks, helping anchor one of the SEC's top defensive fronts.

Joyner's defensive line unit ranked among the most feared in the nation in 2024, helping anchor one of the best all-around defenses in Ole Miss history. The Rebels led the nation in both sacks (52) and tackles for loss (120), both of which were new program records, and most of that came from the dominant rotating cast of Jared Ivey, Walter Nolen, JJ Pegues, Suntarine Perkins and Princely Umanmielen.

Those five Rebels combined for an absurd 65.5 TFL and 38.0 sacks, led by 10.5 sacks each by Perkins and Umanmielen -- tied for the second-most in Ole Miss single-season history.

The Ole Miss defense stifled opponents to just 80.5 rushing yards per game, which ended the season ranked second in the FBS and was the fewest allowed by a Rebel defense since 1966. Ole Miss held nine of its 13 opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing, six below 50 yards -- including a Gator Bowl record 44 yards allowed to Duke to close the season. Only two Rebel opponents broke 400 yards of total offense, while the Rebels held five to fewer than 300.

Nolen became only the 14th consensus All-American in Ole Miss history, while Umanmielen was a second-teamer in his own right. Of Ole Miss' seven-round era record eight NFL Draft selections, three came from Joyner's 2024 defensive line unit: Nolen (Round 1, Arizona Cardinals), Umanmielen (Round 3, Carolina Panthers) and Pegues (Round 6, Las Vegas Raiders).

Joyner's defensive line group in 2023 helped push Ole Miss to its first 11-win season in program history and toward the top of the statistical rankings as one of the more well-rounded defenses in college football. The Rebels led the SEC and ranked fifth in the FBS in turnover margin at +11 and stifled SEC defenses, holding Arkansas (288), Auburn (275) and Vanderbilt (229) to fewer than 300 total yards in consecutive games -- the first such streak at Ole Miss within the same season since 1993.

Joyner's group helped wreak some havoc in the backfield, ranking 19th nationally in sacks and 29th in tackles for loss. Leading the charge were defensive ends Cedric Johnson and Jared Ivey, who each had 5.5 sacks to tie for the team lead while also adding 18.0 combined TFL and 17 QB hurries. Johnson was a sixth-round NFL Draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, while Ivey earned Peach Bowl Defensive MVP honors after causing mayhem against the Penn State offense.

Joyner coached a strong defensive line unit in 2022 that helped push the Rebels to No. 3 in the SEC in sacks -- led by a dominant trio on the line of Jared Ivey, Cedric Johnson and Tavius Robinson. Those three Rebels combined for 12.0 of Ole Miss' 35.0 sacks on the year. Robinson, who was drafted in the fourth round by the Baltimore Ravens in the 2023 NFl Draft, tied for the national lead with five forced fumbles.

Joyner's first season in Oxford was highlighted by a record-breaking campaign by All-American senior defensive end Sam Williams, who tied the Ole Miss single-season sacks record with 10.5. Overall, Williams tallied 16.0 tackles for loss, forced four fumbles, recovered one for a 33-yard touchdown vs. Austin Peay, and had eight QB hurries. His 57 total tackles were the most by a Rebel defensive lineman since 2018. Williams was ultimately the top draft pick for Ole Miss in the 2022 NFL Draft, going 56th overall to the Dallas Cowboys in the second round.

Joyner, who was named to 247Sports' 30under30 list in 2018 and 2019, spent three seasons mentoring defensive linemen at SMU. In 2019, Joyner's line was part of a defense that ranked No. 1 in the FBS for sacks per game at 3.92 and in the top three in tackles for loss at 8.5.

That season, Joyner mentored Second Team All-AAC selection Delontae Scott, who ranked second in the league (16th NCAA) in tackles for loss with 1.4 per game. Scott finished the season with 18.0 TFLs, ranking him second all-time in a season at SMU. His 10.0 sacks placed him fourth on the Mustangs' single-season list and his career total (18.0) tied him for sixth all-time by a Mustang.

During the 2016 and 2017 seasons, Joyner was as a defensive graduate assistant with the Buckeyes, working primarily with the team's defensive line. Ohio State went 23-4 during his two seasons with a trip to the CFP Semifinals in 2016 and a Big Ten Championship and win in the Cotton Bowl in 2017.

He served in the same capacity during the 2015 season at Hawaii. Joyner's coaching career began as a volunteer assistant with the Mustangs.

A four-year letterwinner at SMU, Joyner played in 50 games registering 240 total tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss, six forced fumbles and four interceptions. As a senior, Joyner was a semifinalist for the Campbell Trophy.

He and his wife, Trimiesha, have one daughter, Aniyah. Joyner has a bachelor's in sport management from SMU in 2014, and a master's in kinesiology from Hawaii in 2017.

Head Coach of Offense • Quarterbacks

3rd Season at Ole Miss

Joe Judge is in his third season at Ole Miss and currently serves as Head Coach of Offense and coaches the Rebel quarterbacks on Pete Golding's staff. He arrived at Ole Miss ahead of the 2024 season as a senior analyst and was elevated to assistant coach for the 2025 campaign.

In 2025, Judge directed one of the most explosive offenses in program history, helping lead the Rebels to the College Football Playoff semifinals. Ole Miss set a school record and led the nation with 7,345 total yards while also pacing the country in passing offense with 4,700 yards. The Rebels averaged 490.0 yards per game, the second-highest mark in the country, and scored 65 total touchdowns while averaging 313 passing yards per game, ranking third nationally. Ole Miss also averaged 13.82 yards per completion and threw for 26 touchdowns, including a 362-yard passing performance against Georgia in the College Football Playoff Quarterfinal.

Judge mentored transfer quarterback Trinidad Chambliss, who emerged as one of the nation's top signal-callers. Chambliss threw for 3,927 yards, 22 touchdowns and just three interceptions while adding 527 rushing yards and eight rushing touchdowns. He earned SEC Newcomer of the Year honors from the league's coaches, won the C Spire Conerly Trophy, and was named Second Team All-SEC by the coaches. Chambliss was also a finalist for the Manning Award and a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Davey O'Brien Award, while earning recognition as a member of the Davey O'Brien QB Class of 2025.

Judge spent 12 seasons in the professional coaching pool, beginning his NFL journey as a special teams assistant for the New England Patriots and Bill Belichick in 2012. He remained in New England until 2019, helping guide the Patriots to three Super Bowl victories. During his tenure with New England, he assisted Matthew Slater to a pair of First-Team All-Pro nods and eight Pro Bowl appearances as a special teams player.

Under Judge's tutelage, kicker Stephen Gostkowski led the NFL in scoring four times and was elected to the Pro Bowl in 2013, 2014 and 2015. With 156 points in 2017, Gostkowski became the first player in NFL history with five 150-point seasons.

In 2019, Judge was both the Patriots' special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach, the only NFL coach to hold those positions concurrently. That season, the Patriots finished in the top 10 in the NFL in three significant special teams categories – punt return (8.0), punt coverage (6.3) and kickoff coverage (20.9).

His work with the Patriots earned him his first head coaching gig in 2020 for the New York Giants. He became only the second NFL head coach to have been hired directly from a special teams coaching job, following Kansas City's Frank Gansz (1987).

Judge guided the Giants to a 4-2 record against NFC East rivals in 2020, the team's best mark since 2016. Judge put forth a top-15 defense in in NFL during the 2020 season, while establishing a strong rushing attack. The Giants eclipsed 100 yards on the ground in seven consecutive games, their longest streak since they hit the century mark in nine straight games in 2010.

Judge returned to New England in in 2022 as an offensive assistant and quarterbacks coach, before moving up to the assistant head coach role. Under Judge's guidance in 2023, Mac Jones finished with a 65.2 completion percentage, his second straight season with a pass completion of at least 65 percent. Jones, Justin Herbert and Joe Burrow are the only players to accomplish that feat in their first two NFL seasons.

Prior to his time in the NFL, Judge also found success in in the collegiate ranks, claiming two BCS National Titles in 2009 and 2011 as a special teams assistant under Nick Saban at Alabama. He helped the Crimson Tide to a perfect 14-0 record in 2009, bringing Alabama its first national title since 1992.

At Alabama, Judge's special teams units boasted a First-Team All-American kicker and Groza Award finalist (Leigh Tiffin, 2009), a First-Team All-American return specialist (Javier Arenas, 2009), an SEC All-Freshman team punter (Cody Mandell, 2010) and a returner, who finished his career ranked second all-time in NCAA return yards (Arenas).

In 2005, Judge joined his alma mater, Mississippi State, as a graduate assistant. He then spent 2008 as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Birmingham-Southern.

As an undergraduate, Judge played four seasons with the Bulldogs, earning three letters. He was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and made the Dean's List. His knowledge of special teams originated at Mississippi State, where he primarily spent time as a holder and punt protector while serving as the backup quarterback.

Judge and his wife, Amber, have four children – Sean, Michael, Emma Riley and Ella Grace. Judge's son Sean plays football at Ole Miss.

matt KITCHENS

Assistant Coach • Outside Linebackers

3rd Season at Ole Miss

Matt Kitchens is entering his third season at Ole Miss and first as an assistant coach, overseeing the outside linebacker units.

Kitchens joined Ole Miss in 2024 and spent his first two seasons as an analyst for the Rebels, which included a year as a senior analyst in 2025.

Prior to his time in Oxford, Kitchens had two stints at Central Arkansas, most recently spending two seasons as the team's defensive coordinator and outside linebacker's coach. He spent two years in that role for the Bears.

In 2022, Kitchens' defense had the second-best third down stoppage rate in the ASUN. His defense also scored a pair of touchdowns on the year, both off of fumble recoveries. His defense continued to force turnovers through the air with 11 on the year for consecutive double-digit seasons for the Bears. UCA had the best sacking defense in the ASUN, averaging 2.82 per game, led by David Walker.

Walker, who was a finalist for the 2022 Buck Bachanan Award for the national defensive player of the year in college football's Division I FCS subdivision, was the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year and named an All-American by six national outlets.

In 2021, Kitchens' defense allowed the second fewest first downs in the ASUN while the team's offense paced the league in that regard. The Bears established a tendency to stop ballcarriers behind the line of scrimmage, averaging 5.9 such tackles a game. Defensive end Logan Jessup paced the team in that regard with 11 tackles for loss while eliminating 34 yards of total offense for opponents. Jessup earned second-team sophomore All-American in 2021, as well as the All-ASUN team. Jessup was also an ASUN defensive player of the week, while Deandre Lamont earned two weekly recognitions.

Sandwiched between his stints at Central Arkansas, Kitchens served as the safeties coach and special teams coordinator at South Alabama. During his time in Mobile, Kitchens assisted a pair of players to second team All-Sun Belt members in 2018. Nigel Lawrence earned the accolade as a safety while Tra Minter as a return specialist. Lawrence finish that season third in the Sun Belt in tackles and Minter paced the conference in all-purpose yards, ranking top 10 in the country in that category. As a unit, Kitchens' punt return team finished second in the conference and 10th nationally after averaging nearly 15 yards per attempt.

Kitchens continued to develop Minter throughout his South Alabama career. In 2019, Minter earned honorable mention All-America and first team All-Sun Belt recognition. He racked nearly 160 all-purpose yards per game, ranking second in the NCAA. He concluded his South Alabama career as top five in school history in kick and punt return yards. Kitchens also developed punter Jack Brooks, who averaged one of the top five punting averages in program single-season history.

He arrived at South Alabama after working in the same role from 2015-17 under Steve Campbell at Central Arkansas. His efforts helped the Bears post a 27-9 overall record and a 24-3 mark in the Southland Conference while making two NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoff appearances, including a first-round victory in 2016. UCA never finished lower than second in the league standings over that stretch.

In 2017, Kitchens aided as the Bears posted a 10-2 finish, won the Southland Championship – going 9-0 in conference play – and earned the fourth seed in the NCAA FCS Playoffs. He played role in George Odum earning both All-America and first team All-SLC honors, and Juan Jackson receiving second team all-conference recognition. In 2016, Odum was a first team all-conference selection after UCA went 10-3 overall after defeating Illinois State in the opening round of the postseason.

Kitchens was first a graduate assistant coach at Arkansas Tech from 2010-11 before taking on a full-time position on the school's staff working with linebackers the following year. He then spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Southern Mississippi before accepting the position at Central Arkansas.

A four-year letterwinner at Arkansas Tech, Kitchens recorded 46 tackles, including 7.5 stops behind the line of scrimmage as a senior to help the team to an overall record of 9-3. He received his undergraduate degree in communications from the school in 2009.

jake SCHOONOVER

Assistant Head Coach • Special Teams Coordinator • Nickelbacks

4th Season at Ole Miss

Jake Schoonover enters 2026 in his fourth season at Ole Miss, serving as the assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and nickelbacks coach.

Schoonover helped lead one of the nation's most efficient special teams units while contributing to Ole Miss' College Football Playoff semifinal run. Under his guidance, the Rebels ranked third nationally in net punting with 43.61 yards per punt, consistently winning the field position battle throughout the season.

Schoonover also oversaw a record-setting season from redshirt junior kicker Lucas Carneiro. Carneiro converted 31-of-35 field goal attempts, including a program-record five field goals of 50-plus yards, while going a perfect 11-of-11 from inside 30 yards. He delivered one of the biggest moments of the season by connecting on the game-winning field goal against Georgia in the College Football Playoff Quarterfinal and followed with a four-field-goal performance against Miami in the CFP Semifinal, including a career-long 58-yard field goal.

Schoonover's special teams unit was highlighted by an all-around excellent kicking game in 2024, with All-American senior kicker Caden Davis and fellow senior and punter Fraser Masin leading the way.

Davis, a first team All-American by the College Football Network, broke Ole Miss single-season records in both total points scored and points kicking with 129 on the season after going 24-of-29 on field goals and 57-of-59 on PATs -- including an Ole Miss single-game record 10-of-10 line against Furman. Davis also nailed a crucial 57-yard field at LSU, which set a new Tiger Stadium record, which tied him with Cloyce Hinton for the most career makes from at least 55 yards out at two apiece. Davis left Ole Miss as its career record holder in 50-yard field goals (4), and in 2024 led the nation with 82 touchbacks.

Masin had his best season as a Rebel to date, helping Ole Miss rank third in the nation with a net punting average of 44.31, which stands as the best net punting mark in school history and tied for the 24th-best in FBS history. Masin, a semifinalist for the Ray Guy, put together the third-best single-season average at 46.6 yards per punt with a long of 65, a total of 16 downed inside the 20 and 14 that traveled at least 50 yards.

With the Rebels in 2023, Schoonover led an Ole Miss special teams squad that led the SEC and ranked fourth in the FBS in kickoff return defense (14.3 yards/return) and was 10th in the FBS with three blocked kicks -- all three by defensive tackle Zxavian Harris, who sealed victory against Texas A&M with a blocked field goal as time expired. Schoonover's 2023 squad also took a punt back to the house, as wide receiver Jordan Watkins returned on 70 yards in the season opener vs. Mercer, the first punt return TD by a Rebel team since 2013.

Key for the Rebels in 2023 was the emergence of kicker Caden Davis, who went from kickoff specialist at Texas A&M to bonafide deep threat at Ole Miss. Davis was 18-of-23 on the year, including 5-of-7 from 40 yards or further. Davis nailed what ended up being a game-winning 56-yarder at No. 22 Tulane -- the longest by a Rebel since 1988 -- and he ended the year a perfect 45-of-45 on PATs, the 20th kicker to do so in Ole Miss history and the first since 2015.

Schoonover, who spent 2022 at Arkansas State as special teams coordinator and safeties coach, has 16 years of experience coaching at the collegiate level.

In Schoonover's one season with the Red Wolves, he helped A-State rank No. 35 nationally in kickoff returns (21.7 yards per return) and No. 34 in kickoff return defense (18.04 yards per return). He also mentored true freshman kicker Dominic Zvada. A Lou Groza Award semifinalist and freshman All-American, Zvada broke the Sun Belt Conference single-season record by a true freshman for points by kicking in a season with 81, going 17-for-18 in field goal attempts in 2022.

Schoonover joined Arkansas State after spending the 2021 season at Kansas as the Jayhawks' special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

Under Schoonover's direction, Kansas ranked second in the nation in kickoff return defense (12.7 ypr), 11th in punt returns (13.5 ypr) and 38th in kickoff returns (23.0 ypr). He helped the Jayhawks kickoff unit improve their national ranking from 127th in 2020 to second in 2021, while their ranking in punt returns led the Big 12 Conference and jumped from 128th to 11th during Schoonover's lone season with the program.

Immediately prior to his time at Kansas, Schoonover spent three seasons at Bowling Green. He joined the staff in 2018 as linebackers coach, before adding special teams responsibilities one season later. He also coached safeties during his time with the Falcons.

In 2020, Bowling Green was second in the MAC in kickoff returns and fourth in punt returns. The Falcons also ranked fifth in field goal percent- age and were perfect on extra-point attempts.

Prior to his time at Bowling Green, Schoonover spent seven seasons at Illinois State. He began his career with the Redbirds as the linebackers coach in 2011, before adding the title of special teams coordinator in 2013.

In his role as special teams coordinator, Schoonover worked with kicker Nick Aussieker, who finished as the school's all-time leading scorer with 310 points. In 2014, punter CJ Laros earned second-team all-conference honors and averaged 40.6 yards per punt, which went down as the third-best single-season mark in school history.

Schooonver spent the 2010 season at Illinois Wesleyan, where he coached defensive backs and assisted with special teams duties. In 2009, Schoonover was an assistant at Illinois State, working with the program's offensive line and wide receivers.

He played collegiately at Missouri Western State, where he started 30 games at linebacker and was a team captain. He played two seasons for the arena league Peoria Pirates as a linebacker and wide receiver.

A native of Mound City, Missouri, Schoonover earned a degree in physical education from Missouri Western in 2008 and received a master's degree in sports management with a concentration in administration in 2010 from American Public University. Schoonover and his wife, Katherine, have one son, Jackson, and one daughter, Kenley.

L'Damian Washington is his first season as Ole Miss' wide receivers coach in 2026.

Law caught a team-high 53 passes for 540 yards, scoring three touchdowns in the process. Under Washington's tutelage, Law was selected by the Detroit Lions in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

Washington came to the Lexington after two seasons (2023-24) as the wide receivers coach and pass game coordinator under head coach Alex Golesh at USF. He was the wide receivers coach in 2023 before adding pass game coordinator to his title in 2024.

Wide receiver Sean Atkins posted incredible numbers under Washington, including becoming the first 1,000-yard receiver (1,054) in program history in 2023. The former walk-on also broke the USF career receptions record (160) and has at least four catches in 24 of 25 games since the start of the 2023 season – more than any FBS player over that span. Atkins earned second team All-AAC honors in 2023 after recording 92 catches for 1,054 yards and seven touchdowns. He was a third team choice in 2024 with a team-high 68 catches for 677 yards and two scores.

The Bulls ranked 17th nationally in total offense (451.6 yards per game) and tallied 5,871 yards, the third-best mark in program history.

Wide receiver Marvin Mims Jr. was named to the All-Big 12 Football First Team after leading the Sooners with 54 catches for 1,083 yards and six scores. He averaged 20.1 yards per reception which ranked sixth nationally. Mims is currently entering his fourth season with the Denver Broncos. In 2023, he became just the second rookie in Broncos' history to be selected to the Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro team in the same season.

Prior to Oklahoma, Washington worked one season at Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, under head coach Jason Rollins. He also served as director of player development at his alma mater, Missouri, in 2020, working with then-quarterbacks coach Bush Hamdan. Additionally, he volunteered as the head coach at West Middle School in Columbia, Missouri, in 2019 and 2020.

Washington had a standout career as a player at Mizzou from 2009-13. The four-year letterwinner and two-year starter caught 100 passes for 1,735 yards and 15 touchdowns. In his first two seasons, he caught 25 passes for 399 yards and three touchdowns before moving into a starting role as a junior. In 2012, he caught 25 passes for 443 yards and two scores before exploding for 50 catches and 893 yards (17.9 average) with 10 scores as a senior. One of his most memorable plays came in an upset win at Georgia, catching a double-pass from Bud Sasser to help Mizzou to a 41-26 victory between the hedges. The team captain finished with a career-high 115 yards and two scores on seven receptions against the Dawgs. He also caught a 96-yard TD pass against South Carolina as the Tigers would go on to capture the 2013 East crown that season. The Tigers advanced to bowl games four times when he was with the program.

Following his collegiate playing career, Washington signed with the Dallas Cowboys as an undrafted free agent in 2014. Over the next two years, he would spend time with seven NFL teams before playing in the CFL. He briefly played in the Birmingham Alliance of American Football in 2019 before that league shut down. He then played for the St. Louis Battlehawks of the XFL before that league was shut down in 2020 due to COVID-19.

Washington, originally from Shreveport, Louisiana, graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology from Missouri in 2013. While a student-athlete, his personal story garnered national attention, as he lost both of his parents by the age of 15. He often shares his story and inspires others as a motivational speaker.

frank WILSON

Senior Associate Head Coach • Running Backs

4th Season at Ole Miss

Frank Wilson joined Ole Miss' staff ahead of the 2026 season as the senior associate head coach, as well as the running backs coach, marking his second stint with the Rebels.

A native of New Orleans and two-time national recruiter of the year, Wilson served as LSU's running backs coach and associate head coach for three-plus seasons before being elevated to interim head coach. Prior to joining Brian Kelly's staff, Wilson spent six years on the LSU staff under head coach Les Miles from 2010-15. In all, Wilson spent 10 seasons with the Tigers.

Wilson had helped the Tigers to a combined 36 victories, three bowl wins and three straight Top 10 high school recruiting classes. LSU added the nation's No. 1 transfer portal class for 2025 as well.

Wilson's 2024 running back room featured true freshman Caden Durham and sixth-year player Josh Williams as they combined to 1,264 yards and 12 touchdowns. Durham earned Freshman All-SEC honors after rushing for 753 yards and six touchdowns. His 753 yards were the most of any freshman in the SEC and his 5.38 yards per carry ranked No. 8 overall in the league. Durham had two 100-yard games, including a 101-yard, 3-TD effort in a win over Arkansas.

In 2023, Wilson's running back room played a key role in the nation's most explosive offense as the Tigers led the FBS in scoring (45.5) and total yards per game (543.5). LSU was only team in the nation to rank in the Top 10 in both rushing (No. 10 at 204.5) and passing (No. 3 at 338.9). LSU set the school record for yards per carry with a 6.2 average.

Without a featured back, LSU once again used its stable of running backs in 2023 as the Tigers had three players start games at the position with Logan Diggs leading the way with eight. Seven LSU running backs combined to rush for 1,515 yards and 22 touchdowns with Diggs (653 yards, 7 TDs) and Josh Williams (284 yards, 5 TDs) leading the way.

In his first year back with the Tigers in 2022, LSU set the program record for rushing touchdowns with 39, breaking the previous mark of 37 set in 2013.

Prior to his interim role at LSU, Wilson twice served as a head coach, first at UTSA (2016-19) and then McNeese (2020-21). He has an overall head coaching record of 26-40 with an appearance in the New Mexico Bowl in his first season at UTSA.

Wilson, arguably, had his most difficult season of coaching in 2020-21 after McNeese and Southwest Louisiana took a direct hit from Hurricane Laura, a Category 4 storm with sustained winds of over 150 mph, then six weeks later, was hit with Category 2 storm Hurricane Delta.

Wilson's leadership as a coach, father-figure and community leader was on full display as he helped rally the team, school and community both mentally and physically and just six months later while facilities and homes were still ravaged, he led the Cowboys onto the field for his first time on Feb. 13 in what was one of the most remarkable comeback wins in Cowboy history when McNeese rallied to defeat Tarleton State 40-37 in double-OT.

In 2016 at UTSA, Wilson led the Roadrunners to a second-place finish in Conference USA's Western Division with a 5-3 mark with upset wins over Middle Tennessee and Southern Miss. That season also produced the first player in school history to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft in Marcus Davenport.

UTSA knocked off Baylor in the 2017 season-opener, the program's first win over a Power 5 school and went on to post a 6-5 mark. He guided UTSA to bowl eligibility for the second straight season.

During his four years at UTSA, 26 players garnered All-Conference USA, two were named All-Americans, a league Defensive Player of the Year, two Freshman of the Year selections, a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award and the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy.

Wilson has experience coaching running backs, receivers, and special teams, and he made his mark at LSU as an elite recruiter and developer of talent. He coached seven running backs at LSU who went on to be selected in the NFL Draft, a group that included consensus All-America Leonard Fournette. Four LSU running backs Wilson recruited or coached earned All-SEC honors, a list that includes Fournette, Steven Ridley, Spencer Ware, and Jeremy Hill.

Prior to taking on his first head coaching role, Wilson had his first stint at LSU. He served as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 2010-15. During that time, Wilson helped LSU lure some of the nation's top players to Baton Rouge, as the Tigers had four Top 10 recruiting classes, including the No. 2 class in 2014 and the No. 5 class in 2015.

Wilson helped LSU to six bowl appearances, including the 2012 BCS National Championship game, the 2011 SEC Championship, and an overall mark of 61-17.

Wilson was recognized as the nation's top assistant coach at his position in 2011. Wilson also was named the 2011 Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com, the 2014 NFL.com Top Recruiter in College Football and the 2015 Scout.com SEC Recruiter of the Year.

Overall, Wilson has coached or recruited 47 individuals who have gone on to play in the NFL. In 10 seasons at LSU, Wilson developed seven running backs that were selected in the NFL Draft, including first-team All-SEC performers in Fournette, Hill and Ridley.

Other collegiate coaching stops for Wilson include Tennessee (2009, wide receivers), Southern Miss (2008), Ole Miss (2005-07, running backs/special teams), and Nicholls (1996).

During his first stint at Ole Miss as the running backs coach and special teams assistant, Wilson guided future NFLer BenJarvus Green-Ellis to the third most rushing yards in 2006. Green-Ellis was named first team All-SEC by the league coaches. Under Wilson's tutelage, Green-Ellis finished the season with 1,000 yards on the ground, which ranked fourth on Ole Miss' then-single season rushing chart.

He also was instrumental in Dexter McCluster's development as a return specialist. Ole Miss' special teams' units were one of the bigger strengths of the team, as the Rebel return game provided the offense with good field position game after game.

Wilson is a 1997 graduate of Nicholls where he was a three-year letterwinner at running back for the Colonels.

Wilson and his wife, Tiffany, have three children: Alaina, Sabree and Frank IV "Quad," who played defensive back for LSU for three seasons after spending the 2021 season at McNeese. Quad joined his dad in Oxford as an assistant defensive backs coach.

Woodiel's most impressive act of coaching was assisting in the blossoming of Elijah Arroyo in 2024. Arroyo was one of the best tight end prospects that season, garnering All-ACC second team status while serving as one of Cam Ward's favorite targets. He was selected in the second round of the 2025 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks, and was active for the team's Super Bowl LX win over the New England Patriots.

Tight ends also accounted for over 100 receiving yards and three touchdowns in 2019.

Woodiel joined the Oregon staff as an offensive graduate assistant coach in 2017, following three seasons as the offensive line coach at Itawamba Community College (Miss.). In 2016, Itawamba was third in the country (NJCAA) with 565 yards per game and 36.1 points per game. He was an offensive analyst in his final season with the Ducks.

Before joining Oregon from Itawamba, Woodiel was hired at Murray State as the offensive line coach and was there from December to March. Prior to his time at ICC, Woodiel spent two years as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Troy University.

marcus WOODSON

Assistant Coach • Co-Defensive Coordinator

1st Season at Ole Miss

Marcus Woodson joined the Rebels ahead of the 2026 season as the co-defensive coordinator.

The former Ole Miss student previously spent the past three seasons at Arkansas under the same title.

The Arkansas defense underwent a massive improvement in Woodson's first season in 2023 helped by the development of the Hogs' secondary. Woodson teamed up with secondary coach Deron Wilson to help post the best Arkansas pass defense since 2011 allowing 202.8 yards per game – ranking 31st in FBS for an improvement of 99 spots nationally compared to the 2022 season.

Jaylon Braxton's development during his freshman season was impressive, earning six starts in his nine games played and leading the team with eight pass breakups before being named Freshman All-SEC by the league's coaches. Dwight McGlothern and Walcott each picked off three passes to lead the team with safety Jayden Johnson finishing third on the team with 62 tackles.

Woodson joined the Arkansas staff after spending three seasons at Florida State as the Seminoles' defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator. His secondary helped lead the Noles to a 10-win campaign in 2022 capped by a Cheez-It Bowl victory. Florida State's secondary was one of the nation's best, helping the FSU defense rank fourth in the FBS allowing 165.4 yards per game to lead the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Woodson helped mold safety Jammie Robinson into a two-time, first-team All-ACC performer. In 2022, Robinson led Florida State in tackles with 99, including five tackles for loss. He led the Noles in tackles in 2021 with 84 to go along with an ACC-best four interceptions.

Robinson joined Woodson's group of defensive backs to be selected in the NFL Draft as a fifth round selection by Carolina in 2023. Woodson had seven DBs picked over four NFL Drafts, including 2020 first-round selection Noah Igbinoghene. Igbinoghene was the 30th overall pick by the Miami Dolphins after Woodson coached him through a transition from wide receiver to defensive back upon his arrival at Auburn in 2018.

Florida State had eight different defenders grab at least one interception and forced 20 total takeaways in 2021. FSU picked off at least one pass in eight straight games to end the season, the longest active streak in America entering the 2022 season and tied for the longest streak in the country at any point during the 2021 season.

During the 2020 season, Florida State's defensive backfield was responsible for 10 takeaways and added four forced fumbles. Woodson helped continue the development of first-team All-ACC selection Asante Samuel Jr. into one of the nation's premiere defensive backs. Samuel finished the season leading all active ACC defenders with 29 career pass breakups before being selected in the second-round of the NFL Draft pick by the Los Angeles Chargers.

Prior to Florida State, Woodson helped Auburn win 17 games in two seasons (2018-19) while working alongside Arkansas' new defensive coordinator Travis Williams. In 2019 with Woods as the defensive backs coach and Williams serving as co-defensive coordinator, the Tigers won nine games and advanced to the Outback Bowl.

The Tigers returned three interceptions for touchdowns in 2018, the ninth-highest total in the nation, and ranked 14th in the country in scoring defense by allowing 19.2 points per game.

Woodson headed to The Plains after two seasons at Memphis coaching the Tigers' defensive backs. Memphis won 18 games over the two seasons, forcing a combined 60 takeaways, the second-highest total in the nation during that span. The Tigers picked off 32 passes in Woodson's two seasons and were one of only six teams in the country to record at least 16 interceptions in both 2016 and 2017.

Prior to joining the Memphis staff, Woodson coached defensive backs at Fresno State for two seasons (2014-15). He helped lead the Bulldogs to the 2014 Mountain West Conference Championship Game and a berth in the Hawai'i Bowl. Safety Derron Smith earned first-team All-Mountain West Conference accolades before being drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft. The Rebels advanced to four bowl games, including the Cotton Bowl, the Music City Bowl and two trips to the Independence Bowl during his career. He went to Ole Miss after helping lead Moss Point High School to two Mississippi state titles.

GOLDING ERA HAS ARRIVED

Rebels Ready to Embrace 2026 Spotlight

There's a new head man in charge in Oxford, but it's a familiar face.

Pete Golding heads into his first full year as head coach for the Rebels, coming off a CFP semifinals appearance and Ole Miss' first 13-win season in program history. The Rebels have tallied three straight seasons with 10 or more wins; the first such occurrence by an Ole Miss squad. Ole Miss enters 2026 as a top-10 team by multiple outlets, but will look to replace seven defensive and six offensive starters from the Rebels' historic 2025 team.

Golding and staff set about replacing that core quickly, and have brought an infusion of talent to the 2026 Rebels. Ole Miss ended with the No. 2 ranked transfer class according to 247Sports -- its fifth consecutive top-six finish in the transfer team rankings -- as well as a high school signing class that ranked as high as No. 25.

Ole Miss still has plenty of options already in Oxford as well. The Rebels return 49 letterwinners from the 2025 team, including Maxwell Award preseason watch list honoree Trinidad Chambliss and preseason All-American running back Kewan Lacy.

Offensively, the Rebels bring back five total starters from last year's team that set school records in total points (554) and total yards (7,345). Ole Miss will look to continue its run as one of the most highly prolific offenses in the country. Over the last three seasons, the Rebels have the most passing yards in NCAA, as well as rank third in total points and points per game.

Chambliss went from a D-II national champ to one of the most impactful quarterbacks in the country in a hurry last year. After transferring in from Ferris State, Chambliss didn't start the 2025 season as QB1, but once he got his shot, he took over and never looked back. He started the final 13 games of the 2025 season, completing 66.1 percent of his passes on the season for 3,937 yards, the third-most by an FBS quarterback. He registered 22 touchdowns through the air, with just three interceptions.

The Grand Rapids, Michigan, native finished eighth in the 2025 Heisman vote. Chambliss set a new Ole Miss program record with 12 games with at least 250 passing yards, breaking Jaxson Dart's 2024 record of 11.

In the backfield, the Rebels bring back first-team All-American and 2025 Doak Walker Award finalist Lacy. The junior set single-season program records in total rush attempts (306), rushing yards (1,567) and rushing touchdowns (24) last season. Lacy finished top-three nationally in rushing yards, touchdowns and total points scored (144).

Lacy won't be alone though as Ole Miss brought in additional firepower in transfers Makhi Frazier (Michigan State), JT Lindsey (LSU) and Joshua Dye (Southern Utah). Returner Shekai Mills-Knight and new signees Ja'Michael Jones and Damarius Yates add to an already deep room.

Chambliss will have a reliable target through the air in top returning receiver Deuce Alexander. The preseason All-SEC selection is poised for a breakout season after hauling in 44 catches for 684 yards last season. His 15.5 yards per reception ranked ninth in the SEC during the 2025 season.

Alexander will be joined by several high-profile transfers such as Johntay Cook II (Syracuse), Horatio Fields (Auburn), Darrell Gill Jr. (Syracuse), Cameron Miller (Kentucky) and Isaiah Spencer

(Virginia Tech) -- in addition to highly-touted high school signee Jase Mathews.

Tight ends Caleb Odom and Luke Hasz return after their first season with the Rebels. Odom hauled in 19 passes for 197 yards and two touchdowns, while Hasz tallied a key TD reception in the win over Georgia in the CFP quarterfinals. The duo will be joined by transfers Brady Prieskorn (Michigan) and Michael Smith (South Carolina).

Ole Miss returns three starters on the offensive line in Brycen Sanders, Patrick Kutas and Delano Townsend. Sanders and Kutas started all 15 games last year at center and right guard respectively, while Townsend started the final 13 games of the season at left guard. Reserve role player Terez Davis will look to feature more this fall, as will new Rebel additions Carius Curne (LSU), Troy Everett (Oklahoma), Tommy Kinsler IV (Miami) and Enoch Wangoy (Florida).

The Rebels will have to replace seven starters on defense from the 2025 team, including its top tackler and sacks leader.

Will Echoles, a preseason first-team All-SEC selection, will spearhead the defensive tackle unit after tallying 68 total tackles and 11.5 TFLs in 2025. Kamron Beavers, Jamarious Brown and Andrew Maddox return for the Rebels and will help aid two key additions in the middle of the defensive in Michai Boireau (Florida) and Jehiem Oatis (Colorado).

On the edge, Kam Franklin will be the Rebels' lone returning starter from 2025. Franklin finished fourth last season on the team with 69 total tackles, including nine TFLs and five sacks. He led the team with 15 quarterback hurries. Franklin will be joined by transfers Blake Purchase (Oregon), Jonathan Maldonado (Nevada) and Jordan Renaud (Alabama) -- in addition to highly-touted high school signee Landon Barnes.

The linebacker room for Ole Miss could be one of the deepest in years, with the return of Suntarine Perkins, as well as the addition of transfers Tah'j Butler (Georgia Tech), Luke Ferrelli (Cal) and Keaton Thomas (Baylor). Perkins is the Rebels' top returning tackler from last season, as he finished his 2025 campaign with 81 total tackles, including 12.5 TFLs. Ferrelli earned ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year last season at Cal, while Thomas is coming off back-to-back seasons with 100 or more tackles at Baylor.

The Rebel secondary returns 14 letterwinners from last season but will still need to replace several seniors and four starters in the defensive backfield. At corner, Antonio Kite and Jaylon Braxton return as 2025 starters and will be joined by transfer Jalyn Crawford (Auburn). Ole Miss also brings back reserve players from last fall in Cedrick Beavers, Pat Broomfield and Tavoy Feagin.

At safety, Ole Miss will need to replace starters Kapena Gushiken, Sage Ryan and Wydett Williams Jr. Transfers Joenel Aguero (Georgia), Sharif Denson (Florida) and Edwin Joseph (Florida State) will combine with returners Ladarian Clardy, Nick Cull, Andy Jaffe and Anthony Robinson III to lock down the safety position.

Kicker Lucas Carneiro returns in 2026 after earning first-team All-SEC accolades and a spot on the Lou Groza Award semifinalist list last season. Carneiro connected on a program-best 31 field goals last year, including five from 50 or more yards. Oscar Bird will once again handle the punting role after averaging 46.0 yards per punt last season. At long snapper, Carter Blankenship will replace two-year starter Carter Short.

Junior running back Kewan Lacy, a 2025 first-team All-American and Doak Walker Award finalist, set single-season program records in total rush attempts (306), rushing yards (1,567) and rushing touchdowns (24) last season.

Fifth year quarterback Trinidad Chambliss returns to Oxford after a breakthrough 2025 campain.

GAME THREE
#13 OLE MISS 41, ARKANSAS 35

Sept. 13, 2025
Attendance: 65,068 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — A game that began with a wild flurry of offense ended with a crucial defensive play as No. 13 Ole Miss football held off an Arkansas comeback attempt to win 41-35 and improve to 2-0 in SEC play just three weeks into the 2025 college football season.

The two SEC rivals combined for nine straight scoring drives in the first half, 997 yards of total offense and 53 first downs. But the shootout came down to a defensive stop in the end as TJ Dottery forced a fumble in the final minutes to halt the Razorback comeback.

Special teams proved to be crucial as well, as Ole Miss kicker Lucas Carneiro finished 2-for-2 on field goal attempts, while Arkansas was 0-for-2, ultimately spelling the difference in a six-point game.

Trinidad Chambliss was outstanding in his first Ole Miss start, going 21-for-29 passing with 415 total yards and three touchdowns. Harrison Wallace III once again led the receiving corps with six catches for 92 yards and a touchdown, just eight yards shy of his third straight 100-yard game to start the season. Kewan Lacy had a strong day out of the backfield with 84 all-purpose yards and a rushing touchdown.

Suntarine Perkins led the Ole Miss defense with nine tackles on the night, including one for a loss, as well as one QB hurry. TJ Dottery tallied eight tackles, broke up one pass and forced a fumble. Wydett Williams Jr. recovered that fumble and broke up a pass in addition to six tackles. Zxavian Harris notched five total tackles, including one for a loss and added a pass breakup. Will Echoles had a team-high two QB hurries to go with four tackles.

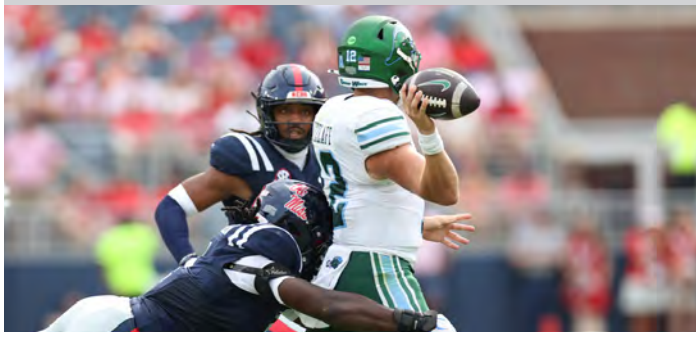
GAME FOUR
#11 OLE MISS 45, TULANE 10

Sept. 20, 2025
Attendance: 65,644 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.



OXFORD, Miss. — A high-powered offensive attack paired with a stagnate defense guided No. 11 Ole Miss to a dominant 45-10 win on Saturday afternoon to improve to 4-0 for the second year in a row.

The Rebels dropped 548 offensive yards on the Green Wave, who only mustered 282 against a defense on fire. Tulane became the second team this season to not surpass the 300-yard plateau against Ole Miss, joining Georgia State. Two Tulane quarterbacks combined for only 104 yards on 10-for-29 passing as they struggled to find a rhythm with their receivers. Tulane went 0-for-3 on fourth down attempts, all halting momentum for the Green Wave and setting up Ole Miss for good field position.

Trinidad Chambliss once again shined behind center, going 17-for-27 with a pair of touchdowns. He eclipsed 400 yards of total offense for the second week in a row with 307 yards in the air and 112 on the ground. Chambliss became just the fourth Ole Miss QB ever to have 300 yards passing and 100 yards rushing in a single game. Deuce Alexander paced the Rebel receivers with four receptions for 94 yards, an overall career-high for the sophomore. His fourth quarter touchdown was his first in an Ole Miss uniform and effectively put the game away for the Rebels.

Kewan Lacy reached the endzone twice for the Rebels, his second multi-touchdown career game of the season as he increased his season total to seven through four games.

Linebacker Jaden Yates became the first Rebel defender this season to reach double-digit tackles in a game this season. His 11 tackles led Ole Miss' dominant defense, which had five tackles for loss in the game. Will Echoles had a career-high eight tackles and had an impressive pass breakup in the first quarter for the first of his career.

GAME FIVE
#11 OLE MISS 24, #4 LSU 19

Sept. 27, 2025
Attendance: 67,737 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — In front of a packed Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, No. 11 Ole Miss football bested No. 4 LSU with a 24-19 victory, becoming 5-0 for the first time since 2022 in the process.

Ole Miss' stout defense headlined the days efforts by stifling and frustrating LSU on nearly every possession. The Rebels shutdown the Tiger offense for 254 yards, nearly 100 less yards than LSU's yearly average thus far, while holding the Tigers to 2-for-11 on third downs. Entering the game, Offensively, the Rebels dropped 480 total yards on the Tigers, the most they've allowed this season.

Ole Miss' win served as the 16th all-time top-5 win in program history and the sixth at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

For the third game in a row, Trinidad Chambliss passed for over 300 yards, reaching 314 and tallying a touchdown in the air. He became the first Ole Miss quarterback to surpass 300 yards of total offense in each of his first three Ole Miss starts since Jordan Ta'amu in 2017. With his performance, he surpassed 4,000 passing yards for his overall collegiate career.

Chambliss also added 71 rushing yards for the Rebels, with Kewan Lacy reaching 87 on the ground. His primary target today, Cayden Lee, had a team-leading four catches for 70 yards and reached the endzone for the first time this season.

Linebacker Suntarine Perkins paced Ole Miss with seven total tackles, three of which being solo. It's the second time in three games that Perkins led Ole Miss defensively. Kam Franklin and Will Echoles headlined Ole Miss' defensive front, each accounting for at least one tackle for loss and five tackles each, with Echoles recording a sack.

Wydett Williams Jr. secured his first interception as a Rebel during the second quarter, perfectly reading the ball to put Ole Miss' offense in scoring position.

GAME SIX
#4 OLE MISS 24, WASHINGTON STATE 21

Oct. 11, 2025
Attendance: 66,392 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — No. 4 Ole Miss football celebrated its 98th Homecoming game in Oxford with a gritty 24-21 win over non-conference foe Washington State on Saturday afternoon.

The Rebels are now 74-17-2 all-time in Homecoming games since 1924, and by besting the Cougars, Ole Miss is now undefeated through six games for the first time since 2022.

The difference in the matchup came on third downs, where Washington State struggled to convert all game. The Cougars went 2-for-10 on third downs for a 20 percent clip. Ole Miss has allowed a 34.8 percent conversion rate on third downs this season.

Trinidad Chambliss went 20-for-29 through the air and accounted for three total touchdowns on the day. Dae'Quan Wright continued to etch his name further into Ole Miss' record book by catching his seventh touchdown as a Rebel. Wright, who finished the day with four catches for 80 yards on top of his score, is now tied with Don Williams for the sixth most touchdown receptions among Rebel tight ends in program history. On the ground, Kewan Lacy averaged 5.9 yards per carry for a total of 142 rushing yards for the day.

TJ Dottery, Wydett Williams Jr., Kam Franklin and Tahj Chambers paced the Rebel defense with six tackles apiece. Six total Rebels recorded at least five tackles, including Franklin, who recorded 1.5 sacks. Franklin paced the team in that category, with Princewill Umanmielen and Will Echoles recording one each as well. Ole Miss finished with four sacks on the day, which is a season-high for the team.

GAME SEVEN
#7 GEORGIA 43, #5 OLE MISS 35

Oct. 18, 2025
Attendance: 93,033 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – The game saw seven lead changes and 78 combined points, but the No. 5 Ole Miss Rebels couldn't hold off a late charge from the No. 7 Georgia Bulldogs, falling 43-35 between the hedges on Saturday afternoon.

The Rebels and Bulldogs were in bitter competition for much of the game, as every drive until the late fourth resulted in either a Georgia or Ole Miss score. But the Bulldog defense figured it out late, finally frustrating the Rebel offense to two straight three-and-outs and a turnover on downs to close the game.

Trinidad Chambliss was effective at keeping the Georgia defense on its toes, going 19-of-36 passing for 263 yards and one touchdown while also leading Ole Miss in rushing at 42 yards and two touchdowns on nine attempts.

Kewan Lacy also had two scores alongside 31 yards on 12 attempts, making him only the 18th rusher in Ole Miss history with 10 rushing touchdowns in a single season. De'Zhaun Stribling had his best day as a Rebel with 96 yards on three catches – including a massive 75-yard score at the start of the third quarter.

Suntarine Perkins led the way with a season-high 10 tackles, one forced fumble and a half tackle for loss. Inside linebacker TJ Dottery tied his season-high with nine stops, while safety Wydett Williams Jr. had an Ole Miss career-high eight tackles.

GAME EIGHT
#8 OLE MISS 34, #11 OKLAHOMA 26

Oct. 25, 2025
Attendance: 83,468 • Oklahoma Memorial Stadium • Norman, Okla.

NORMAN, Okla. – The Sooners ripped off an early second half run to make it tight, but timely defensive stops and some key movements downfield by the Rebel offense helped keep No. 8 Ole Miss on top of No. 11 Oklahoma, 34-26, on Saturday.

The Rebels led 22-10 at the break, but Oklahoma scored 13 unanswered across the final five minutes of the third quarter to take a 26-25 lead. But a crucial success by the Rebel offense – led by another strong day by quarterback Trinidad Chambliss – and a forced fumble on a punt by Trace Bruckler, who caught the previous touchdown, helped give Ole Miss the narrow edge for victory.

Ole Miss notched 436 yards of total offense and yielded 359, but the Rebels had five more third-down successes and dominated time of possession at 35:36 – crucially 8:17 in the fourth quarter to keep the Sooner offense off the field.

Chambliss surpassed 300 yards passing for fourth time in six starts, ending with 315 yards and one touchdown on a 24-of-44 passing line. Chambliss is the first Ole Miss QB with at least 250 passing yards through their first six starts since Eli Manning in 2001, who did so six times.

Edge rusher Princewill Umanmielen had a breakout performance, notching six tackles with 2.0 TFL and 1.5 sacks to lead an effective Ole Miss pass rush. TJ Dottery and Kapena Gushiken were also tied for the team lead with six tackles apiece.

GAME NINE
#7 OLE MISS 30, SOUTH CAROLINA 14

Nov. 1 2025
Attendance: 67,491 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. – A dominant defensive effort as well as Kewan Lacy's career day pushed No. 7 Ole Miss football past South Carolina on Saturday evening, 30-14, at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

The Rebels stifled the Gamecocks' offense, causing havoc in the backfield all day after allowing a Gamecock touchdown on their first drive. Once the Rebels took the lead in the second quarter, they never looked back. A strong defensive fourth quarter that saw Ole Miss allow only 65 yards would be the deciding factor in shutting down South Carolina down the line.

Ole Miss had a season-high six sacks on the day, which marks the second consecutive season the Rebels had at least that many sacks in a single game. For Ole Miss, it's the most sacks by the Rebels in a single game since having eight against Arkansas last season. Offensively, the Rebels accounted for 417 total yards for the day, with Lacy accounting for 174 of the yards on his own. As a team, Ole Miss rushed for 258 yards. The Rebels have yet to drop below 400 total yards in a game this season.

Lacy headlined Ole Miss' offensive efforts against South Carolina, accumulating 167 yards for the day on a 7.0-yard average per carry. For Lacy, it's his third game with triple-digit rushing in a Rebel uniform. His 29-yard and 54-yard runs in the game was his seventh and eighth run of at least 20 yards this season.

Nov. 8, 2025
Attendance: 67,326 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. – An unstoppable aerial assault and the definition of stout defense guided No. 6 Ole Miss to a dominant 49-0 victory over The Citadel Saturday afternoon.

The Rebels have now recorded a shutout in two consecutive seasons and third time in four seasons. It marks the first time since the 2007 and 2008 seasons that Ole Miss has recorded at least one shutout in back-to-back seasons. Ole Miss' defense continued to shut down its opponents, holding The Citadel to only 106 yards of total offense. It's the first time since 2014 against Memphis that the Rebels held their opponents to 150 yards or less of total offense.

The Rebels recorded 603 yards of total offense, marking the second time this season they've surpassed the 600-yard mark.

Trinidad Chambliss and Ole Miss' receivers lit up The Citadel's defense throughout the game. Chambliss went 29-for-33 through the air, an 88 percent completion percentage, with a trio of touchdowns to no interceptions. He accrued a 202.6 rating while passing for 333 yards, his fifth game with at least 300 passing yards.

The leading receiver for the Rebels was Harrison Wallace, who hauled in eight passes for 87 yards. Caleb Odom had a career day himself, recording career highs in catches (six) and receiving yards (64), while bringing in the second touchdown of his career. Winston Watkins and Cayden Lee were the other receivers to score touchdowns on the game.

Chucky Mullins Award Winner Tyler Banks had a career-high six tackles, which included two solos. He recorded 1.5 tackles for loss which is also a career best. Andrew Jones also continued his upward trajectory, hauling in four tackles with two solo, and half of one for a loss.

OXFORD, Miss. – Kewan Lacy ran all over Florida as No. 6 Ole Miss football boosted its odds at reaching the College Football Playoffs, beating the Gators 34-24 on Saturday evening at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Lacy has been a force this season for Ole Miss, as he has once again set a career high in rushing yards in a game. Against the Gators, Lacy recorded 224 yards on the ground with a hat trick of touchdowns. By scoring three times on the ground, Lacy overtook Quinshon Judkins as Ole Miss' record holder for the most rushing touchdowns in a single season, finishing the day with 19 to his name in 2025. Lacy also broke the single-season all-purpose touchdown record of 17 that was set four times prior.

Ole Miss' defense shutout Florida in the second half, forcing two punts, two turnovers on downs and an interception. In that time, the Rebels scored 14 unanswered points to record win No. 10 on the season.

Alongside his two touchdown records, Lacy finished with 224 yards on the ground alongside his hat trick. His rushing performance is the eighth best in Ole Miss history and so far this season, Lacy is averaging 111.1 yards and nearly two touchdowns per game at home. Trinidad Chambliss recorded his sixth game of the season with at least 300 passing yards, finishing 26-for-35 for 301 yards and a touchdown.

Wydett Williams Jr. had one of his best outings of the season thus far, leading the Rebels with eight tackles and an interception. His tackle total ties a season and Ole Miss high for the senior safety, while his interception was his third of the season.

GAME TWELVE
#6 OLE MISS 38, MISSISSIPPI STATE 19

Nov. 28, 2025
Attendance: 60,417 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. – Ole Miss football concluded a historic regular season in fitting fashion, taking down in-state rival Mississippi State, 38-19, at Davis Wade Stadium. With the victory, the Rebels (11-1, 7-1 SEC) have recorded the first-ever 11-win regular season in Ole Miss football history – the second 11-win season overall alongside the 11-2 campaign in 2023.

Mississippi State (5-7, 1-7 SEC) made it interesting for much of the game, but Ole Miss would not be denied, tallying 545 yards of total offense on the backs of superb performances from senior QB Trinidad Chambliss, sophomore RB Kewan Lacy and several others.

The win gave Ole Miss its third consecutive Egg Bowl victory, the first three-peat for the Rebels since 2002-04 and the first in the series by either school since State won three in a row from 2009-11.

Chambliss had his best passing game as a Rebel yet, going 23-of-34 for 359 yards and four touchdowns – all Ole Miss career bests.

Lacy – fresh off two school records vs. Florida two weeks ago – moved into third on the all-time Ole Miss single-season rushing list after his performance of 143 yards and one touchdown on 27 carries. The Doak Walker Award finalist also become only the 12th rusher in SEC history to score 20 times on the ground in a single season.

The Ole Miss receiving corps had an all-around great day, led in receptions by junior Cayden Lee (7 rec., 77 yards) but led in yards by sophomore Deuce Alexander (2 rec., 94 yards, 1 TD). Seniors De'Zhaun Stribling (4 rec., 66 yards, 2 TD) and Harrison Wallace III (4 rec., 72 yards, 1 TD) also found the endzone.

GAME THIRTEEN (CFP - FIRST ROUND)
#6 OLE MISS 41, #11 TULANE 10

Dec. 20, 2025
Attendance: 68,251 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — For the second time this season, No. 6 Ole Miss football dominated No. 11 Tulane, 41-10, this time in the first round of the College Football Playoff at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford, Mississippi.

This was Ole Miss' 15th consecutive victory against Tulane (11-3) dating back to 1989, the second-longest win streak against any Rebel opponent behind a 17-game run vs. Memphis from 1921-62. With the win, it marks the first 12-win season in Ole Miss football history. The previous best was an 11-2 campaign by the 2023 Rebels.

Trinidad Chambliss once again performed at a high level, going 23-of-29 passing for 282 yards and one touchdown, while adding 36 yards and two scores on the ground. De'Zhaun Stribling and Deuce Alexander were Chambliss' top targets, recording five and seven catches for 87 and 79 yards, respectively. Kewan Lacy capped an explosive first drive with a 20-yard score, his 21st of the season, as he finished the day with 87 yards on the ground.

Linebacker TJ Dottery and defensive tackle Will Echoles paced Ole Miss' defense, recording six tackles each. Dottery forced a fumble for the second time this season, and for the third time in his overall career, which resulted in a critical turnover for the Rebels as the Green Wave were mounting an impressive drive. Safety Kapena Gushiken, who had four tackles himself, recovered that fumble, his first as a Rebel.

Junior linebacker duo Suntarine Perkins and Princewill Umanmielen had monstrous outings in the backfield, haunting the Green Wave with four tackles for loss and six quarterback hurries combined. Umanmielen had 1.5 sacks on the evening, while Perkins had a season-high 2.5 tackles for loss.

HISTORY OF OLE MISS FOOTBALL

The University of Mississippi boasts a long and colorful football history, which includes the formation of the first football team in the state, as well as one of the most successful programs in the history of collegiate football.

In its 131-season history, the Ole Miss football program has claimed three national championships (1959, 1960 and 1962), six Southeastern Conference titles (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, and 1963), one SEC Western Division title (2003), and one College Football Playoff appearance (2025). In addition, Ole Miss has produced 64 first team All-America selections, nearly 200 first team All-SEC selections, appeared in 44 bowl games with 28 wins, and sent more than 300 players into the professional ranks.

REBEL FOOTBALL BEGINNINGS

The beginnings of the program can be traced all the way back to 1890 when Dr. A.L. Bondurant, who would later serve as Dean of the Graduate School, urged Ole Miss students to help in the formation of an Athletic Association in the interests of football, baseball and tennis. Such a group became a reality a short while later, and in 1893, a football team was organized, with Bondurant serving as the manager-coach.

That first squad set a precedent that was to become an Ole Miss tradition, winning four of five games during that maiden season, including a 56-0 victory over Southwest Baptist University of Jackson, Tenn., in the inaugural game on Nov. 11, 1893.

Early financial matters were the responsibility of the manager. Support came largely from the Athletic Association, which was made up of a combination of students and faculty members willing to back the athletes by payment of a small fee.

Although it has never been documented, it is thought that C.D. Clark of Tufts was the first paid football coach at Ole Miss. His name appears as manager of the team, as shown in the Ole Miss Magazine, dated November 1894.

THE PRE-WWII YEARS

Prior to 1925, a total of 22 coaches took their turn as head coach at Ole Miss with only seven heading up the program for more than one season. Those early years were characterized by periods of both prosperity and difficulty: 1883-95, 12-3; 1896-1908, 24-36-1; 1909-14, 33-17-4; and 1915-24, 30-48.

Since the formation of the Athletics Committee in 1925, the Rebels have had just 16 head coaches, with three of those also handling the dual responsibility of athletic director. The establishment of the committee on a faculty-alumni basis (a student representative has since been added) seemed to re-establish alumni support for the football program and a bright future lay ahead.

Homer Hazel of Rutgers served as the head coach from 1925-29, winning 21 games, losing 22 and tying three before being succeeded by Ed Walker, a Stanford graduate, in 1930. While Walker's record was a modest 38-38-8 over his eight-year stay, he firmly established the direction of the football program. He took Ole Miss to its first bowl game in 1935, with the Rebels falling to Catholic University, 20-19 in the Orange Bowl. He also coached the Rebels' first All-America first-teamer, Bruiser Kinard, in 1936. Kinard, who also earned All-America first-team honors in 1937, would be the first of 58 Rebels to earn the prestigious national accolade.

Under Walker's tenure, Ole Miss took another step to help cement a solid future for Rebel football and other athletic teams when they became a charter member of the SEC in 1933. The Rebels have competed in the league ever since. Prior to joining the SEC, Ole Miss had competed in the Southern Conference from 1922-32.

Harry Mehre, from Notre Dame, became the head coach in 1938 and put together a pre-war record of 39-26-1, which included several notable victories. Mehre led Ole Miss to its first ever victory over Vanderbilt in 1939, its first win in 11 years over LSU in 1938, and its first win over Tulane in 25 seasons in 1941.

The post-war period would prove to be the Rebels' most glorious era as C.M. "Tad" Smith, a member of the Ole Miss athletic family since 1929, succeeded Mehre as director of athletics. Smith would serve as athletic director for 25 years before retiring on Feb. 1, 1971.

Harold (Red) Drew of Bates was brought in as head coach in 1946 and Ole Miss football stood on the verge of becoming one of the most powerful and respected programs in the country. A long-time assistant coach at Alabama, Drew remained at Ole Miss just one season before returning to Tuscaloosa as head coach, but his brief stay would prove to change the course of Rebel football.

VAUGHT PUTS OLE MISS ON NATIONAL MAP

John Vaught, a line coach under Drew and a former All-American at TCU, remained in Oxford as head coach in 1947 and led the Ole Miss program to national prominence over the next 24 years.

In his first season at the helm in 1947, the Rebels posted a 9-2 record and won the first of six SEC crowns (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, 1963). That 1947 season also saw Ole Miss great Charlie Conerly become the first Rebel player to be a contender for the Heisman Trophy, placing fourth in the voting for the prestigious honor. Vaught's first year proved to be a sign of good things to come for Ole Miss. During his 24-year tenure, the Rebels would have only one losing campaign.

The Rebels also claimed three national championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. Ole Miss won the 1959 Dunkel System national crown, the 1960 Football Writers Association of America, Dunkel System, Williamson System national championships, and the 1962 Litkenhous Ratings national title. Vaught's 1959 squad was ranked the third best collegiate football team from 1956 to 1995, according to the Jeff Sagarin Ratings released in January of 1996.

The Rebels were also among the winningest programs in the country under Vaught during the 1950s and 1960s. From 1950-59, Ole Miss posted an 80-21-5 record (.778 winning percentage). The 80 wins and 77.8 winning percentage were second to only Oklahoma during that decade. In the 1960s, Vaught guided the Rebels to a 72-20-6 record and a 76.5 winning percentage, which was the fourth best during that decade.

Under Vaught's guidance, Ole Miss made Hemingway Stadium (later named Vaught-Hemingway Stadium) one of the toughest places in the nation for opposing teams to play. In his 24 seasons at the helm, Vaught's teams compiled an impressive 57-6-2 record in Oxford for an astounding 89.2 winning percentage. From 1952-1964, the Rebels put together an incredible 34-game homefield unbeaten streak (33-0-1), including 21-straight victories from 1952-59.

In the 1950s and 1960s under Vaught, Ole Miss was a fixture in the national polls. The Rebels were ranked atop the Associated Press poll for three weeks during the 1960 season and one week during the 1961 campaign. In 1964, Ole Miss was ranked preseason No. 1 in the Associated Press poll.

Vaught also made going to postseason play the norm rather than the exception for the Rebel football program.

SIX SEC TITLES

1947	9-2
1954	9-2
1955	10-1
1960	10-0-1
1962	10-0
1963	7-1-2

Ole Miss played in 15 consecutive bowl games from 1957-71 which, at that time, was a national record. In all, Vaught led Ole Miss to 18 bowl game appearances, posting a 10-8 record in those contests. For his efforts, Vaught was named SEC Coach of the Year six times (1947, 1948, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962).

During his time at the helm, Vaught coached some of the best players ever to wear the Red & Blue. In 24 seasons, Vaught produced 26 All-America first-teamers. He also coached four players who finished in the top five in the Heisman Trophy voting. Along with Conerly in 1947, Charlie Flowers (5th in 1959), Jake Gibbs (3rd in 1960) and Archie Manning (4th in 1969, 3rd in 1970) were in the running for college football's top honor.

Failing health forced Vaught to resign his position in 1970, and the reins of the Ole Miss football program were turned over to Billy Kinard.

THE POST-VAUGHT YEARS

Kinard became the first Ole Miss alumnus to lead the football program, while Frank "Bruiser" Kinard, an offensive line coach under Vaught since 1948, was named to replace Smith as athletic director that same year.

The Rebels went 16-9 under Billy Kinard, including a 10-2 record and a 41-18 Peach Bowl victory over Georgia Tech in his first year in 1971. Kinard's 10 victories in '71 are tied for fourth most by a first-year head coach in NCAA Division I history.

Kinard coached the Rebels through the 1972 campaign and the third contest of the 1973 season before startling developments following the Sept. 22, 1973, game with Memphis State saw both Kinards replaced by Vaught. Vaught returned to the field to guide the Rebels through the remainder of the 1973 season while also taking on the responsibility of athletic director.

Following the 1973 football campaign, Vaught resigned once again as head coach, but remained on as athletic director. His final record with the Rebels was an amazing 190-61-12. The 190 victories still rank Vaught among the top 50 winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, and he is the sixth-winningest coach in SEC history behind Bear Bryant's (Alabama) 292 wins, Nick Saban's (LSU/Alabama) 237 wins, Steve Spurrier's (Florida/South Carolina) 208 wins, Vince Dooley's (Georgia) 201 victories and Dan McGugin's (Vanderbilt) 197 victories. In 1979, Vaught was inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame.

Ken Cooper, an assistant under Kinard since 1971, was named head coach on Jan. 17, 1974, and took Ole Miss through the 1977 season. Cooper compiled a 21-23 record during his four years at the helm, and his tenure is probably best remembered for one hot and humid day in September 1977. In one of the most memorable games in Rebel football history, Ole Miss upset Notre Dame 20-13 in Mississippi Memorial Stadium on Sept. 17, 1977, in Jackson. That loss was the Irish's lone setback of the 1977 campaign, as Notre Dame finished the season with an 11-1 record and claimed the national title.

Following the 1977 season, Steve Sloan was hired as the new Rebel boss and began his five-year stint in 1978. Sloan posted a 20-34 record from 1978-82.

BREWER RETURNS

After stepping outside the Ole Miss family football tree the previous nine seasons, Ole Miss looked for a familiar face to lead the football program, and the Rebels found that person when Billy Brewer returned to Oxford to take over as head coach in December of 1982.

In his first season in 1983, Brewer put the Ole Miss program on the road back to national prominence. Brewer guided the Rebels to their first winning regular season since 1977 with a 7-4 mark. The Rebels received their first bowl game invitation since 1971 and met Air Force in the Independence Bowl. Ole Miss dropped a 9-3 decision to the Falcons and finished with a 7-5 record.

Brewer followed his first season with 10 more at the helm of the Rebel program. During his tenure, he led the Rebels to five more winning seasons and four additional bowls, including Ole Miss' 1990 New Year's Day Gator Bowl appearance. The Jan. 1 bowl game was the program's first since 1969. Brewer was named SEC Coach of the Year in 1986 (8-3-1 record) and 1990 (9-3 record), and the 1986 season saw the Rebels return to the national rankings for the first time in over a decade. In his 11 seasons, Brewer also led Ole Miss to eight Egg Bowl victories over rival Mississippi State.

Brewer coached 11 years (1983-93) and compiled a 67-56-3 record, making him the second winningest Ole

REBELS ON THE RISE

In the mid-1990s Ole Miss Football was somewhat down, but not out, and it needed a boost of energy to revitalize the program. On Dec. 2, 1994, Tommy Tuberville was selected as the coach in charge of getting the Rebels on the right track.

After serving as an assistant coach on the collegiate level for nine seasons (eight at Miami and one at Texas A&M), Tuberville began creating excitement in his first season in 1995, finishing the campaign with a 6-5 record and a Egg Bowl victory over Mississippi State.

That excitement grew to a fever pitch in 1997, when Ole Miss recorded its best season since 1992 with an 8-4 record, a thrilling 15-14 Egg Bowl victory and a Motor City Bowl win over Marshall. The bowl appearance was the program's first since 1992, and the Rebels earned a final national ranking of No. 22 in both polls.

The revitalized Ole Miss program continued its winning ways in 1998, despite a coaching change following the regular season. David Cutcliffe took over as head coach on Dec. 2, 1998. Cutcliffe, who came to Ole Miss from his offensive coordinator post at Tennessee, took over the reins just 29 days before the Rebels' Sanford Independence Bowl date versus Texas Tech. Despite the short preparation time for the game, Cutcliffe led the Rebels to a 35-18 victory over the Red Raiders, quite arguably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season.

OFFENSIVE FIREWORKS OVER OXFORD

Cutcliffe, who is recognized as one of the top offensive minds in collegiate football, brought a high-powered offensive style that had Rebel fans waiting with anticipation for each season to start.

In his six seasons, the Rebels averaged more than 350 points per year, including shattering the then-record for points scored in a season during the 2003 campaign with 442. The previous mark was 391 points by the 2001 squad. During Cutcliffe's tenure, the Rebels set numerous game, season and career records.

Cutcliffe's football philosophy also translated into wins for the Rebel program. Under Cutcliffe, Ole Miss posted 44 overall victories, including four wins in the postseason.

In the time from 1997-2003, the Rebels played in six bowl games, which tied them with Arkansas for the most bowl appearances among SEC Western Division schools during that span. The only SEC teams that made bowl appearances all seven years were Florida, Georgia and Tennessee, all Eastern Division squads.

In 2003, Cutcliffe guided the Rebels, who many picked to finish fifth in the SEC's Western Division, to a 10-3 overall mark and a share of the SEC West title with eventual BCS National Champion LSU. The title was the Rebels' first league football title of any sort since winning the conference crown in 1963. Following their 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the SBC Cotton Bowl Classic, the Rebels ended the 2003 campaign with a No. 13 national ranking. It was Ole Miss' first New Year's bowl since the 1991 Gator Bowl against Michigan.

Cutcliffe preceded his 2003 campaign with four winning seasons in 1999 (8-4), 2000 (7-5), 2001 (7-4) and 2002 (7-6), becoming the first Rebel mentor since Harry Mehre (1938-41) to post winning marks in his first five years. Cutcliffe also directed Ole Miss to four bowl appearances in his first five seasons, becoming the first of two head coaches in Ole Miss history to do so.

REBEL RECRUITING RAMPS UP

On Dec. 16, 2004, Ole Miss turned to one of college football's premier recruiters and defensive line coaches in Ed Orgeron. Orgeron took control of the Rebel program after serving the previous seven seasons as defensive line coach at the University of Southern California, where he played a key role in Pete Carroll's Trojans winning back-to-back national championships in 2003 and 2004. Orgeron also served as USC's recruiting coordinator from 2001-2004 and was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com. Orgeron's talent as a recruiter created a buzz among Rebel fans and drew national attention when Ole Miss' 2006 signing class finished as high as ninth in the rankings. All three of his recruiting classes were listed among the best in college football.

NUTT LEADS REBELS TO TWO COTTON BOWLS

The Ole Miss football program sought a proven winner when Houston Nutt was introduced as the Rebels' 36th head coach on Nov. 28, 2007.

After guiding Arkansas to three SEC Western Division titles and eight bowl berths in his decade in Fayetteville, Nutt immediately reversed the Rebels' fortunes and guided Ole Miss to success that had not been experienced in Oxford in a half century.

Nutt's first two years at the helm produced consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time since 1961-62 and back-to-back January bowl victories for the first time since 1960-61.

In his first season in Oxford, Nutt led the Rebels to a 9-4 record (5-3 in the SEC), second in the West, a 47-34 win over Texas Tech in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic and Rising as high as No. 4 in the national rankings in 2009, Nutt's Rebels knocked off No. 8 LSU, Tennessee and Arkansas en route to a second straight Cotton Bowl berth, in which Ole Miss prevailed over No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7. The Rebels finished 20th in the AP poll.

FREEZE ELEVATES OLE MISS NATIONALLY

A Mississippi native, Hugh Freeze was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

He was the first coach in school history to guide the Rebels to a bowl game in each of his first four seasons.

Among the accomplishments in Freeze's five-year tenure were back-to-back New Year's Six bowl appearances (including a win in the 2016 Sugar Bowl), 45 weeks ranked in the national top-25, four straight season ticket sellouts and season attendance records at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, and 121 total graduated student-athletes.

The Rebels earned their 10th win of the 2015 season by crushing Oklahoma State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, 48-20. The Sugar Bowl appearance was the Rebels' first since the 1969 season, and Freeze guided the team to its first 10-win campaign since 2003.

At No. 9 in the final coaches poll and No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll, Ole Miss finished with its highest national ranking since 1969.

A whopping 64 Ole Miss team and individual records were broken or tied in 2015, including most total yards (6,731), points (531), touchdowns (68) and passing yards (4,351) in a season.

REBELS LOOK TO ONE OF THEIR OWN

Following the resignation of Hugh Freeze on July 20, 2017, Ole Miss handed the reins of the program to Matt Luke, a man who had been a Rebel his entire life. After serving as co-offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for five seasons, Luke was named interim head coach.

A native of Gulfport, Mississippi, Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91.

As interim head coach, Luke guided the Rebels to a 6-6 record that culminated with a 31-28 upset victory over No. 14 Mississippi State in the season-ending Egg Bowl in Starkville. Ole Miss made it official on Nov. 27, 2017, removing the interim tag and introducing Luke as the 38th head coach in program history. He would guide the Rebels for three seasons.

EXCITEMENT RETURNS WITH KIFFIN HIRE

After several frustrating seasons, newly-appointed athletics director Keith Carter looked to re-energize the program, and he certainly did that by hiring one of the brightest offensive minds in college football. After leading Florida Atlantic to a pair of Conference USA titles in three seasons, Lane Kiffin was named as the Rebels' new head coach on Dec. 7, 2019.

Kiffin did just that, leading the Rebels to a 55-19 record across his six seasons in Oxford in front of perpetual sellout crowds at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. His Ole Miss squads made their mark across the school record book and were among the top programs in the nation during his tenure, which saw five bowl berths, three bowl wins and the first 10-win regular season (2021) and first 11-win overall season (2023) in Ole Miss football history.

Ole Miss returned to the Sugar Bowl for the first time since 1970 and was crowned 2016 champion after a 48-20 victory over Oklahoma State. The Rebels made back-to-back New Year's Six bowl appearances in the first two years of the College Football Playoff system.

GOLDING ERA BEGINS

With Kiffin's departure following the 2025 Egg Bowl, Carter immediately elevated defensive coordinator Pete Golding, an elite defensive mind and celebrated recruiter, as the 40th head football coach in Ole Miss history on Nov. 30, 2025.

Golding was immediately put in charge of a College Football Playoff team, the first in Ole Miss football history, that was given a No. 6 seed and the chance to host the first home postseason game ever at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss' unique situation led to Golding and the Rebels becoming media darlings throughout a remarkable playoff run that began with a 41-10 rematch win over 11-seed Tulane in front of a record 68,251 fans in The Vaught.

Another rematch awaited Golding and the Rebels against No. 3 Georgia in the Sugar Bowl for the CFP Quarterfinals. Behind the remarkable play of Division II transfer QB Trinidad Chambliss, first-year transfer RB Kewan Lacy and the most clutch field goal in school history by newcomer Lucas Carneiro, the Rebels pulled off a dramatic nine-point comeback win over the Bulldogs, 39-34, to advance to the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl.

Ole Miss fought down to the wire against No. 10 Miami in Glendale but came up just short of its first trip to the national title game, falling to the Hurricanes 31-27 to wrap up a storybook season for Golding and the Rebels.

THE PERFECT TEAM

1962 ... The year stands as a benchmark of change in the life of Ole Miss.

Legendary Rebel Head Coach John Vaught and his football team not only put together the only perfect season in the history of Ole Miss football, but they also captured the Billingsley, Litkenhous and Sagarin ratings national titles and their fifth SEC championship. The season's highlight came when the Rebels were invited to the prestigious Sugar Bowl, where they defeated the Arkansas Razorbacks 17-13. Vaught garnered SEC Coach of the Year honors.

Those associated with the 1962 team donated the funds for the "Walk of Champions" arch, located at the entrance to the Grove near the Student Union plaza. The site is the route for the football team's traditional "walk through The Grove" on game days. It was dedicated in the fall of 1998.

The purpose of the arch is to remind all athletes that they play for national championships, SEC championships and Ole Miss pride. The names of the coaches, players, trainers and managers who won the hearts of Rebel fans with their spirit and tenacity are listed on a plaque.

"Joe Wilkins, Larry 'Leo' Johnson and I first discussed the idea of an arch in the fall of 1997 while we were visiting in the Grove, and we agreed to pursue it," said Samuel W. Owen of Nashville, a member of the 1962 team. "We want the arch to stand as a symbol of what can be accomplished with teamwork, loyalty and trust."

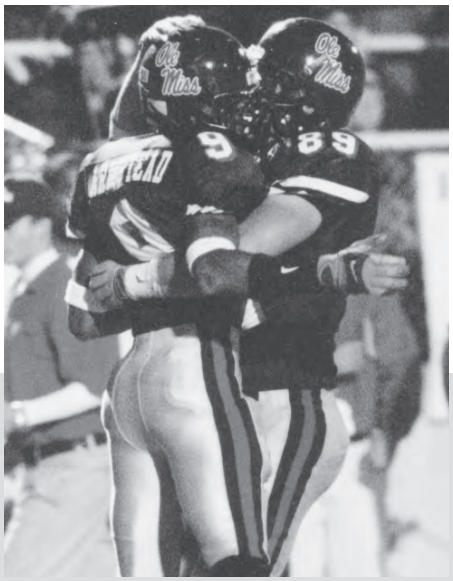
THE LONGEST GAME

The November 3, 2001 contest between Ole Miss and Arkansas in Oxford kicked off at 6:06 p.m. (CT), and four hours and 14 minutes later, coaches, players, fans, media members and an ESPN2 national audience saw a game that would go down in the college football record books.

The Rebels and Razorbacks stood toe-to-toe in an epic, seven overtime battle, that saw the Hogs come out on top 58-56. It was tied for the longest OT game in NCAA history.



Jason Armstead (9) is congratulated by Doug Zeigler (89), following one of Armstead's three TDs versus the Razorbacks.

FIELD GOALS

Prior to 1959, modern-era college field goals were measured from the line of scrimmage to the goalposts. Since 1959, they have been measured from point of origin to the goalposts. To adjust, all goals kicked prior to 1959 were lengthened by seven yards. This rule was a suggested option in 1958.

THE BATTLE FOR THE GOLDEN EGG

The following is the background as to how the Ole Miss-Mississippi State football game came to be known as the "Battle of the Golden Egg" or even "The Egg Bowl." Many of the excerpts are reprinted from the book "Mississippi Mayhem," written by William Banner, III.

1926

Up until the 1926 meeting in Starkville, Ole Miss had only claimed five victories in the previous 23 football contests between the Rebels and Bulldogs. Thus, when Ole Miss claimed a 7-6 victory over then Mississippi A&M College, a celebration was due at Scott Field after that '26 contest.

Oddly, huge roars went up from both sides at the final whistle, not just from the Ole Miss stands. While the A&M players walked slowly off the field with heads bowed, wrote one newsman, the Maroon student section stood and sang the alma mater.

But on the east side, pandemonium. Well wishers rushed "like madmen onto the field," Webb Burke said in his 1957 interview. Some fans made a dash for the goal posts. Irate Aggie supporters took after the ambitious Ole Miss group with cane bottom chairs, and fights broke out. The mayhem continued until most of the chairs were splintered.

As explained by the Reveille, A&M yearbook, "A few chairs had to be sacrificed over the heads of these to persuade them that was entirely the wrong attitude."

As described in a story for the Commercial Appeal by Ben Hilbun, who one day would become president of the Starkville school, "The phantom of victory, that for thirteen years eluded Ole Miss, returned to the bearded Berserkers ... and they won over A&M, their traditional rivals, 7 to 6." Ole Miss students fought for the goal posts, he continued, "but were restrained."

Ole Miss fans couldn't believe their victory. Through all their 13 defeats since 1910 (they did not play in 1912, 1913 and 1914) they had only scored in three games, counted just 33 points to A&M's 327, an average of 25-3.

The Golden Egg was first proposed by members of Iota Sigma, an Ole Miss honorary activities fraternity. As thoughts of last year's game, Iota Sigma proposed that a trophy be awarded in a dignified ceremony designed to calm excited fans. One proposal that was rejected was to send the goal posts to the winning side each year.

A&M approved the suggestion of an award, and Ole Miss, two weeks before the game, officially added its approval. The trophy, to be called "The Golden Egg", would be a regulation-size gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal. Costs of approximately $250 would be shared by both schools. Ole Miss students held a tag day to raise funds.

The joint resolution of the two student bodies declared they agreed on the trophy "in order to effect a better understanding in athletic relations, to foster clean sportsmanship, and to promote a lasting tradition..."

A brand-new series between the University of Mississippi and Mississippi A&M College began on Thanksgiving Day, 1927; the first Battle of the Golden Egg.

Of course, it was the Ole Miss-A&M slugfest, played before a crowd of 14,000 for the first possession of the gold football which was to become symbolic of supremacy in this annual feud-battle.

It was actually the 25th meeting of the two combatants. And for the second time in four years it was Push versus Pass, a heavier line versus a lighter passing attack. And once again the Pushers prevailed, except this time the pushing team was Ole Miss. The score was 20-12.

Unlike the previous year's brawl ending, the 1927 game closed with a highly dignified ceremony, the first presentation of the Golden Egg. As previously agreed in the inception of the egg, the schools first sang their alma maters, Ole Miss, as winner, sang first. The captains of the two teams, presidents of the two student bodies and the heads of the two schools met in the center of the field.

The Ole Miss-Mississippi State series took on a new twist in 1978, a season which saw the Rebels 4-6 and the Bulldogs 6-4 heading into the season finale. As Steve Doyle of the Jackson, Miss., Clarion-Ledger reported in the Nov. 20 edition, "In a year in which neither team will be remembered, the Battle of the Golden Egg is a bowl game. Intense, heated, unbelievable in its lore, this one is for supremacy of the season. Bragging rights, recruiting edges and sheer pride are the guts of it. Every cliche you've ever heard about a single game applies to it."

In 1978, with both teams apparently out of the bowl picture, Executive Sports Editor Tom Patterson decided to do something extra to spice up coverage of the annual grudge match, instructing his staff to follow the "Egg Bowl" theme throughout the week. The result was an award winning special section on Sunday, which recounted in great detail the Rebels' stunning 27-7 victory over the highly-favored Bulldogs. In that game, John Fourcade made his first start at quarterback to become the first Ole Miss freshman since 1945 to receive the starting nod at the signal-caller slot. The special section was a big success and the die was cast. Although it's officially the "Battle of the Golden Egg," most members of the media now refer to the annual bloodletting simply as the "Egg Bowl."

1983

In one of the series' most memorable battles, Ole Miss claimed a pulsating 24-23 victory over Mississippi State in Jackson, but it took some heroics on the part of the Rebels and a 40 miles-per-hour crosswind to decide the outcome. Down 17-0, Ole Miss got on the board when Timmy Moffett returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown with 1:21 remaining in the first half. However, the Bulldogs added to their lead after the break, and the Rebels found themselves trailing 23-7 to start the fourth quarter. With the wind now at its back, Ole Miss utilized two fumble recoveries and an interception to take a late 24-23 advantage. But State made one last try and moved the ball to the Rebel 10 yardline with 24 seconds left. On fourth down, MSU kicker Artie Cosby attempted a 27-yard field goal, but as true as it was between the uprights, the ball never got there as the wind just slapped it down to give Ole Miss its first on-the-field winning season in eight years at 6-5 and a berth in the Independence Bowl.

1991-92

"The Battle of the Golden Egg" returned to campus in 1991 as Mississippi State hosted Ole Miss in Starkville. It marked the first on-campus meeting between the two teams since 1972. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford was the site of the 1992 game, which Ole Miss won, 17-10 thanks to a thrilling goal-line stand. The series continues to rotate between campus sites.

1995

Ole Miss rode a school-record rushing performance and a stingy second-half deficit to a 13-10 victory over Mississippi State to regain the Egg Bowl Trophy. The win gave the Rebels a winning season and head coach Tommy Tuberville a triumph over the school's biggest rival in his first Egg Bowl game. Dou Innocent rushed for a record 242 yards on 39 carries to help the Rebels overcome an early 10-0 deficit. The Bulldogs never entered Ole Miss territory in the second half.

1997

The 1997 contest provided another close contest and perhaps the most exciting finish ever in the series. Stewart Patridge hit Andre Rone for a 10-yard TD pass with 25 seconds left and then found Cory Peterson over the middle on the two-point conversion attempt to give the Rebels a 15-14 win over Mississippi State. The win propelled the Rebels to their first bowl game since the 1992 Liberty Bowl when they were rewarded with an invite to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich.

2000

Running back Deuce McAllister rushed for three touchdowns and passed for another to lead Ole Miss to a 45-30 victory on Thanksgiving Night. With it being Senior Night in Oxford, McAllister hooked up with Rebel Romaro Miller on a 20-yard halfback option TD toss. McAllister finished with 121 yards rushing on 24 carries, while Miller threw for 127 yards and ran for 60. The win returned the Golden Egg to Oxford after a two-year absence.

2003

Eli Manning passed for 260 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Rebels to a 31-0 shutout win in his final regular-season collegiate game. The Ole Miss defense held the Bulldogs to only 91 yards passing and picked off one Mississippi State pass in Jackie Sherrill's final game as head coach on a rainy evening in Starkville. The win propelled the Rebels to the Cotton Bowl and their first 10 win season since 1971. The game was also the final of six straight Egg Bowls (1998-2003) played on Thanksgiving and televised nationally by ESPN.

2008

Jevan Snead threw for 213 yards and four touchdowns and Greg Hardy had three of Ole Miss' school-record 11 sacks, as the Rebels beat Mississippi State 45-0 in the most lopsided Egg Bowl in 37 years. The Rebels finished with a school-record minus-64 rushing yards allowed and 14 tackles for loss. Defensive end Greg Hardy and tackle Peria Jerry led the charge. Jerry had four tackles for loss.

2012

Paced by a three-touchdown performance from wide receiver Donte Moncrief, Ole Miss defeated No. 24 Mississippi State, 41-24. Moncrief had seven catches for a career-high 173 yards, the fourth-most in a single game in Ole Miss history. Quarterback Bo Wallace threw five touchdowns on the night. The Egg Bowl win propelled Ole Miss to its first bowl berth in three years and provided momentum that later saw the Rebels earn a BBVA Compass Bowl victory over Pitt in January and land the best signing class in school history the next month.

2014

Bo Wallace passed for nearly 296 yards, Evan Engram had a career-high 176 receiving yards and Jaylen Walton rushed for a career-high 148 yards to lead the No. 18 Rebels to a 31-17 win over No. 4 Mississippi State. Of his 14 carries, none were bigger than a highlight-reel 91-yard touchdown run that proved to be the game-winning score for the Rebels. The Egg Bowl win capped a 9-3 regular season for the Rebels and earned them a berth in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

2015

For the first time in 12 years, Ole Miss left Starkville with a victory. The Rebels scored 21 first-quarter points on their way to a 38-27 win, their second-straight Egg Bowl and first in Starkville since the 2003 season. Thanks to a potent offense, the Rebels set the single-season total offense record on the night and scored the most points in Starkville since the 1971 season. Quarterback Chad Kelly broke the school record for passing yards in a season with 236 yards and two touchdowns.

2017

Ole Miss entered Starkville as the underdog against 14th-ranked Mississippi State, but the Rebels jumped out to a 24-6 lead and held off a late Bulldog rally to secure the Golden Egg on Thanksgiving Day. Ole Miss followed an explosive day by Starkville native receiver A.J. Brown, who racked up 167 receiving yards, including a 77-yard scoring reception. Oxonian receiver D.K. Metcalf added 67 yards and a touchdown, while running back Jordan Wilkins had a 110-yard day with two touchdowns on the ground. Meanwhile, the Rebel defense forced five turnovers as Ole Miss won the Egg Bowl for the fourth time in six years.

2020

The Ole Miss offense had a terrific day, and the Rebel defense clamped down late to snap a two-game losing streak in the Battle for the Golden Egg and bring the trophy back home to Oxford. Matt Corral completed 24 of 36 passes for 385 yards and two touchdown passes. Elijah Moore became the school's all-time record holder for receptions in a season with 86, passing A.J. Brown. Moore added 139 yards through the air. On the ground, Jerrion Ealy led the Rebels with 93 yards on 18 carries and a touchdown which sealed the game late.

2021

Ole Miss kept the Golden Egg in Oxford, turning in a dominant 31-21 victory at Davis-Wade Stadium in Starkville. The Rebel defense kept Mississippi State out of the end zone until late in the fourth quarter, while the offense followed two Snoop Conner touchdowns to a 24-6 lead. With the game well in-hand, the Bulldogs managed two late touchdowns, but it wasn't enough to overcome the Rebel lead on Thanksgiving Day.

2023

Defense was the name of the game in an intense tug-of-war between the Rebels and Bulldogs, but two key late scoring drives and a powerful outing by running back Quinshon Judkins helped push Ole Miss to a 17-7 Egg Bowl victory. The Landshark D held State to its fewest yards in the Egg Bowl since 2019, led by safety Daijahn Anthony's 15 tackles.

This year's "Battle for the Golden Egg" will take place on Friday, Nov. 27 in Oxford. The matchup will be the 123rd meeting between the two schools and the 99th Egg Bowl.

OLE MISS BOWL HISTORY

Ole Miss has a proud tradition of bowling that dates back to 1935, including what once was a national record of consecutive bowl appearances — from 1957 to 1972. It is a high standard of excellence which present-day Ole Miss football teams continue to strive for.

Ed Walker coached the first Ole Miss bowl team, the high-scoring outfit of 1935 which outplayed, but was nipped by Catholic University, 20-19, in the 1936 Orange Bowl.

The next bowl for the Rebels was for the 1947 squad, a 12-year wait. But from there, with Coach John Howard Vaught at the Ole Miss helm, bowls came and kept coming after the Rebels following each season. Vaught took the Rebs to the ill-fated Delta Bowl in 1948, as the 1947 SEC Champions beat Texas Christian 13-9. Vaught had to wait until 1952 to go bowling again, but from that point forward, the Rebel mentor made post-season games a habit that was hard to break.

All-in-all, the Rebels participated in six Sugar Bowls, two Gators, one Cotton, two Bluebonnets, two Liberties, one Sun and one Peach during that run of 15 straight. Vaught's personal bowl record was 10-8, while Billy Kinard's 1971 Rebels, with a 9-2 record, earned a bid to play Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, which produced a 41-18 triumph.

Ole Miss dropped out of the bowl picture after that 1971 Peach Bowl appearance with Georgia Tech. When Billy Brewer became head coach prior to the 1983 season, the Rebels had not been bowling for 12 years. During Brewer's 11 years as head coach, Ole Miss went to five bowls, twice to the Independence, twice to the Liberty, and once to the Gator. Brewer was 3-2 as a coach in bowl games.

The Rebels returned to postseason action in 1997 for the first time since the 1992 Liberty Bowl, and for the first time under Tommy Tuberville, as Ole Miss was invited to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich., where they defeated Marshall 34-31.

The Rebels then followed with what was probably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season, as Ole Miss defeated heavily favored Texas Tech, 35-18, in the Sanford Independence Bowl in head coach David Cutcliffe's debut. Ole Miss went 4-1 in the five bowl games it played in under Cutcliffe as head coach, including three victories in the Independence Bowl, and one victory in the Cotton Bowl (2004).

Ole Miss returned to the Cotton Bowl in 2009 and 2010 under Houston Nutt, who led the Rebels to 47-34 and 21-7 victories, respectively.

Under first-year head coach Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss defeated Pittsburgh 38-17 in the BBVA Compass Bowl on Jan. 5, 2013, although the game was later vacated by NCAA ruling. The Rebels set a number of BBVA Compass Bowl records, including most points scored by a team (38). Ole Miss followed that with a 25-17 win over Georgia Tech in the Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tennessee, on Dec. 30, 2013.

The Rebels made consecutive New Year's Six bowl appearances beginning with the Peach Bowl in 2014 and followed up the 2015 season with a record-setting 48-20 win over Oklahoma State in the Sugar Bowl on January 1, 2016. As a unit, the Rebels put up 554 yards of total offense, the most of any Ole Miss team in any bowl game, and also broke the previous record for points in a bowl game.

Ole Miss returned to the postseason in 2020, earning an Outback Bowl bid after a four-year bowl drought. The Rebels earned a date with No. 7 Indiana and didn't disappoint. Ole Miss never trailed and held off a late Hoosier rally in a 26-20 victory to win its first Outback Bowl title.

The Rebels kept the bowl train rolling in 2021-22, mounting a 10-2 regular-season record to earn a Sugar Bowl berth for the 10th time in program history, ultimately falling 21-7 in a defensive slugfest to Baylor.

Ole Miss went 8-4 in the regular season 2022 and earned a spot in its first-ever Texas Bowl, falling 42-25 to Texas Tech, before a historic 11-2 campaign in 2023 was capped with a 38-25 victory over Penn State in the Peach Bowl.

The 2024 Rebels, stung by three one-possession losses, finished their season in powerful fashion, dismantling Duke 52-20 in the Gator Bowl -- and setting many Ole Miss and Gator Bowl records in the process.

The historic 2025 team, the first to 13 wins, won a thrilling Sugar Bowl (its seventh such win all-time), and will now play in the first Fiesta Bowl in program history.

1936 ORANGE BOWL

Catholic University 20
Ole Miss 19

Ray Hapes

In its inaugural bowl game, Ole Miss fell 20-19 to an opportunistic Catholic University squad from Washington, D.C., which at the time ranked as an Eastern power.

The Rebels held a 15-7 advantage in first downs and out-gained the Cardinal 265-172. However, Ole Miss was unable to overcome deficits of 13-0 and 19-7.

Catholic took a 7-0 lead after converting one of four Ole Miss picks on the day into a 51-yard scoring drive, capped by Bill Adamaitis' two-yard touchdown run.

The Cardinal increased its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter when Adamaitis connected with Speck Foley on a 48-yard touchdown pass.

Ole Miss would pull to within seven at 13-6 before halftime when Ned Peters ran 67 yards for a score.

The Rebels would hold Catholic without a first down in the second half; however, the Cardinal went up 20-7 by scoring a touchdown off a blocked punt.

Ole Miss would get two fourth-quarter scores for the 20-19 final. Dave Bernard scored on a one-yard run to make it 20-12 after the PAT attempt failed, and Herb Baumstein found Buster Poole for a 24-yard touchdown pass.

Dixie Howell

Ole Miss recorded its first bowl victory with a 13-9 win over TCU in front of 28,120 at Memphis' Crump Stadium in the 1948 Delta Bowl.

Charlie Conerly passed for two fourth-quarter scores to rally the Rebels from a 9-0 deficit in his final game in an Ole Miss uniform.

Conerly's first touchdown pass was a 26-yarder to Joe Johnson to cut the Horned Frog's lead to 9-6.

After a Bobby Wilson interception, Conerly hit Johnson for 52 yards to the TCU 13. Conerly then found Dixie Howell from 13 yards for a touchdown. Bobby Oswalt, who missed on his earlier PAT attempt, was accurate his second time around to make it 13-9.

Red Buchanan then sealed the win with an interception at midfield to snuff out any TCU comeback attempt.

In its first of eight Sugar Bowl appearances, seventh-ranked Ole Miss dropped a 24-7 decision to No. 2 Georgia Tech.

The Rebels, who brought an 8-0-2 mark into the contest, struck early. Wissy Dillard's four-yard touchdown run and Jimmy Lear's PAT gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead 3:45 into the game.

The Engineers would provide all the scoring the rest of the day. Georgia Tech got a touchdown and a field goal to take a 10-7 lead into intermission and then added a pair of touchdowns in the second half.

Georgia Tech would finish the year 12-0, and through the Sugar Bowl, had not been beaten in 25 starts.

Statistically, the game was even. Georgia Tech held a slight 16-15 advantage in first downs and a 295-287 edge in total offense. However, the Rebels were plagued by six turnovers.

Navy shutdown an explosive Ole Miss offense en route to posting a 21-0 victory over the SEC Champion Rebels in front of 83,000 at the 1955 Sugar Bowl.

Ole Miss entered the game having outscored its opponents 283-47. However, the Midshipmen would outgain the Rebels 442-121, including holding a 295-78 advantage on the ground.

Navy took the opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for a three-yard touchdown run by Joe Gattuso to take a 7-0 lead. The Midshipmen would carry the seven-point lead into halftime.

Navy would also score on its first possession of the second half, taking the kickoff and marching 86 yards. John Weaver's 16-yard touchdown pass from George Welsh capped the 11-play drive and extended the lead to 14-0.

Gattuso would complete the scoring with his second touchdown, a one-yard run in the third quarter.

Eagle Day

Quaterback Eagle Day led Ole Miss to its first major bowl win with a 14-13 victory over TCU in the 1956 Cotton Bowl.

Jim Swink staked the Horned Frogs to a 13-0 lead with touchdown runs of one and 39 yards.

Day got the Rebels going with a four-play, 66-yard scoring drive that resulted in Paige Cothren's three-yard TD run to make it 13-7 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Day would engineer another 66-yard scoring match. A 13-yard pass from Day to Cothren on fourth down moved the ball to the Horned Frog 32. Two plays later, Day sprinted 25 yards to the five. Billy Lott then broke around right end for a five-yard touchdown and Cothren's PAT gave the Rebels a 14-13 lead with 4:22 remaining.

Eddie Crawford thwarted any comeback attempt by TCU with an interception. Day would then manage to run out the clock to secure the victory for Ole Miss.

1958 GATOR BOWL

Ole Miss 7
Florida 3

Richard Price

Jim Anderson's one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter proved to be enough as Ole Miss knocked off Florida 7-3 on an overcast day in the 1958 Gator Bowl.

The Rebels took the game's opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for the game's only touchdown.

Florida would take the ensuing kickoff and score on Billy Booker's 27-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 7:44 left in the first quarter. Neither team would score the rest of the game.

The Gators had two opportunities to take the lead in the fourth quarter.

A surprise quick kick by Florida's Bobby Joe Green traveled 76 yards to just outside the Rebel 10 to start the final period. Milton Crain, looking for someone to block, stumbled over the ball, and Dave Hudson covered for the Gators. Florida would move to the two, but Richard Price stuffed a fourth-and-goal attempt for the Gators.

After a short punt, the Gators took over at the Rebel 26 and advanced to the 15 before Bill Churchwell forced and recovered a fumble.

The two teams would then exchange punts, however, Jimmy Dunn bobbled a Rebel punt at the Florida 48 and Ole Miss recovered. The Rebels then ran out the final 3:10 of the game.

1960 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 21

Bobby Franklin

A little over two months after Billy Cannon's famous 89-yard punt return on Halloween night lifted LSU to a 7-3 win over Ole Miss in Baton Rouge, the second-ranked Rebels and third-ranked Tigers were rematched in the 1960 Sugar Bowl.

This time, Ole Miss made sure there would be no heroics from Cannon. The Rebel defense limited the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner to eight yards on six carries. The Tigers managed just 74 yards total on the night and were a -15 in the rushing department.

Ole Miss, led by Bobby Franklin's two touchdown passes, totaled 363 yards of offense and rolled to a 21-0 victory.

Franklin finished 10-of-15 passing for 148 yards and had touchdown passes of 18 yards to Larry Grantham and nine yards to George Blair in the second half. He would garner the game's Outstanding Player honor.

Ole Miss would finish the year 10-1 and was recognized as national champions by the Berryman, Billingsley, Dunkel and Sagarin ratings.

The 1959 squad would also go on to earn "Team of the Decade" honors within the SEC by the Associated Press.

Ole Miss completed its 1960 National Championship season with a 14-6 win over Rice in the 1961 Sugar Bowl. With the win, the Rebels finished the year 10-0-1, with the only blemish coming in the fashion of a 6-6 tie with LSU in October.

Jake Gibbs scored both of Ole Miss' touchdowns with runs of eight and three yards. Gibbs' eight-yard scamper gave the Rebels a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Owls used an 18-play, 77-yard scoring drive to make it 7-6 in the third. Butch Blaine completed the march with a two-yard run around the right end on fourth down. However, the PAT attempt failed, leaving the Rebels clinging to a one-point lead.

Ole Miss iced the game in the fourth quarter behind the running of Jim Anderson. Anderson's running helped set up Gibbs' three-yard score with 5:16 left.

Anderson finished the game with 59 yards rushing on 15 carries.

Following the game, Ole Miss was awarded the national title by the Football Writer's Association, and became the first SEC team to win the Grantland Rice Award.

Playing without All-America fullback Billy Ray Adams, Ole Miss became a 12-7 upset victim to Texas in the 1962 Cotton Bowl.

Adams was injured in a car accident two days after the Rebels' 37-7 win over Mississippi State in November, after returning from Jackson to attend a touchdown club meeting.

Ole Miss came into the contest sporting a 9-1 record and having outscored its opponents 326-40. However, without Adams, the Longhorns made sure the Rebels didn't do damage through the air with All-America quarterback Glynn Griffing.

The Rebels held a 319-183 advantage in total offense, but couldn't overcome six turnovers, including five interceptions.

Griffing was 12-of-29 for 163 yards with three interceptions and a touchdown. Doug Elmore was intercepted twice in eight pass attempts.

Ole Miss' only points of the day came in the third quarter when Reed Davis scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Griffing to make it 12-7.

1963 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 17
Arkansas 13

Louis Guy

Ole Miss completed a perfect 10-0 season with a 17-13 victory over Arkansas in the 1963 Sugar Bowl.

Quarterback Glynn Griffing was a near unanimous selection for the game's Most Valuable Player Award. He connected on 14-of-23 passes for 242 yards with one touchdown and one interception to break Davey O'Brien's 24-year-old Sugar Bowl passing yards record.

As effective as Griffing was through the air, it was his one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that broke a 10-10 tie and put the Rebels up for good.

The Razorbacks could only answer with a 22-yard field goal from Tom McKnelly with 1:33 left in the third quarter.

Griffing's 33-yard touchdown pass to Louis Guy gave Ole Miss a 10-3 lead heading into the intermission.

Alabama 12
Ole Miss 7

Perry Lee Dunn

Four plus inches of snow fell on New Orleans the day before Ole Miss took the field against Alabama in the 1964 Sugar Bowl.

Under the slippery conditions, the Rebels and Crimson Tide combined for 17 fumbles, including nine lost. Unfortunately for Ole Miss, the Rebels would fumble 11 times and lose six.

Alabama would also intercept three Ole Miss passes en route to receiving four Tim Davis field goals and post a 12-7 win.

Ole Miss' lone score would come in the fourth quarter on a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn to Lee Smith to provide the 12-7 final.

The Rebels ended up with a 248-194 advantage in total offense, but most of the yards came too late. The Crimson Tide held a 112-34 edge in the first half to build a 9-0 halftime lead.

Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome passed for 252 yards and a score, and scored on a one-yard touchdown run to lead the Golden Hurricane to a 14-7 win in the 1964 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Rebel quarterback Jim Weatherly spotted Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a one-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Rhome's one-yard run tied the game at 7-7 heading into the half, and capped a 72-yard, eight play march by Tulsa.

Rhome would strike again midway through the third quarter. His 35-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Fletcher put Tulsa up 14-7 and the Golden Hurricane defense would hold the rest of the way.

Tulsa limited Ole Miss to 217 yards of total offense, while the Golden Hurricane totaled 323.

Weatherly was 16-of-24 pasing, but managed just 113 yards and was intercepted twice.

Mike Dennis rushed for a game-high 73 yards on 17 carries and also caught nine passes for 114 yards.

Jimmy Keyes' two field goals helped propel Ole Miss to a 13-7 win over SEC-rival Auburn before 38,607 in the 1965 Liberty Bowl in Memphis.

Auburn drove to the Ole Miss nine with 33 seconds left in the game, but Tiger quarterback Alex Bowden was sacked on fourth down.

Keyes' first field goal, a 42-yarder in the second quarter, gave Ole Miss a 3-0 lead. The Tigers would quickly answer with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tom Bryan with 6:58 left in the first half.

Ole Miss would take the lead for good in the third quarter when Doug Cunningham caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Jody Graves.

Keyes would later add a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to provide the 13-7 margin.

Tailback Mike Dennis rushed for 75 yards on 15 carries for Ole Miss, and quarterback Jimmy Heidel added 72 yards on 16 attempts.

Bruce Newell

Ole Miss entered the 1966 Bluebonnet Bowl having recorded five shutouts and allowing only 46 points en route to an 8-2 regular season.

However, it was the defense of Texas that would shine in this match-up.

The Longhorns limited the Rebels to 208 yards of offense and posted a shutout in a 19-0 victory.

Texas had scoring drives of 89, 68 and 53 yards.

Ole Miss had only two scoring threats on the day. On the first, Jimmy Keyes' 43-yard field goal attempt was wide. Later in the third quarter, the Rebels were stopped on fourth down at the Texas eight.

Texas running back Chris Gilbert rushed for 156 yards on 26 carries, including a one-yard touchdown run to give the Longhorns a 12-0 lead in the third.

Doug Cunningham had 60 yards on 12 rushes for Ole Miss, and also caught three passes for 17 yards.

The University of Texas at El Paso scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and used a stingy defense to hand Ole Miss a 14-7 loss in front of 34,685 at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

After a scoreless first quarter, Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard run by quarterback Bruce Newell. After that, the Rebels could manage very little offensively.

The Miners would limit Ole Miss to just 109 yards of total offense for the game.

Still, the Rebels carried a 7-0 lead into the final 15 minutes.

UTEP, though, would get a five-yard touchdown pass from Billy Stevens to Dave Karns to tie the score at 7-7 with 14:18 remaining.

The Miners would score the game-winning touchdown with 7:52 left when Larry McHenry found the end zone from four yards out.

Stevens finished the game 13-of-26 for 155 yards with one touchdown and one interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

Ole Miss erased a 17-0 first quarter deficit to roll to a 34-17 win over Virginia Tech in the 1968 Liberty Bowl, in front of 42,206 on a bright, bitterly cold afternoon in Memphis.

Archie Manning's 24-yard touchdown pass to Hank Shows early in the second quarter put the Rebels on the board and trimmed the Hokies' lead to 17-7. Manning would later find Leon Felts for a 23-yard touchdown pass to pull Ole Miss to within three at 17-14 heading into the break.

Steven Hindman broke a 79-yard scoring run just 21 seconds into the third quarter to give the Rebels the first lead of the day at 21-17.

Ole Miss would also get a 70-yard interception return for a touchdown by Robert Bailey and a pair of Van Brown field goals.

Hindman finished with 122 yards rushing on 15 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Back.

Junior quarterback Archie Manning passed for one touchdown and rushed for another to lead No. 13 Ole Miss to a 27-22 upset of No. 3 Arkansas in the 36th annual Sugar Bowl Classic.

Cloyce Hinton gave the Rebels a 27-12 lead with a 36-yard field goal in the third quarter, before the Razorbacks would begin to rally.

Arkansas received a 35-yard field goal from Bill McClard to cut the Ole Miss lead to 27-15 entering the fourth quarter.

The Razorbacks then intercepted a Manning pass and took over at the Rebel 11. Two plays later, Bill Montgomery completed a six-yard touchdown pass to Bill Burnett to pull Arkansas to within 27-22 with 10:15 left.

Later, with 1:!5 left in the game, Arkansas moved to the Ole Miss 36. Montgomery threw a strike to Chuck Dicus for 11 yards, however, Glenn Cannon's hit stripped Dicus of the ball and the Rebels recovered to secure the win.

Manning finished 21-of-35 passing for 273 yards with two interceptions. He also added 39 yards rushing to earn Most Outstanding Player honors.

Archie Manning recorded 275 yards of total offense in his final game at Ole Miss, but it wasn't enough to rally the Rebels past Auburn, as the Tigers took home a 35-28 win in the 1971 Gator Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebels' 18th and final bowl appearance under head coach John Vaught.

Behind quarterback Pat Sullivan, the Tigers built a 21-0 second-quarter lead before Manning engineered two touchdown drives before the half to make it 21-14.

The two teams would then trade touchdowns in the second half.

Manning finished completeing 19-of-28 passes for 180 yards with an interception. He connected with Floyd Franks on a 34-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to make it 21-14

Manning also added 95 yards rushing on 11 carries and scored Ole Miss' first points of the game on a two-yard run in the second quarter.

Sullivan passed for 351 yards and two scores for the Tigers. He completed 27-of-43 attempts and was intercepted once.

Air Force 9

Andre Townsend

Ole Miss ended a 12-year drought with an appearance in the 1983 Independence Bowl. However, the Rebels return to the postseason wouldn't be a succesful one as nationaly-ranked Air Force used three field goals from Sean Pavlich to forge a 9-3 win on a rainy evening in Shreveport, La.

The Rebels held in check a powerful wishbone attack by the Falcons, one which averaged more than 400 yards per game during the 1983 season. Ole Miss used a gallant goal line stand midway through the fourth quarter to stay within striking range.

Pavlich gave Air Force a 6-0 lead with field goals of 44 and 39 yards. The Rebels got on the board just before halftime on a 39-yard field goal by Neil Teevan with four seconds remaining.

Pavlich's third field goal of the night, a 27-yarder with 7:59 left in the third quarter, marked the end of the scoring.

Air Force held a 348-244 advantage in total offense and had a 37:13 edge in time of possession.

Buford McGee rushed for 11 yards on 22 carries for the Rebels.

Mark Young passed for an Ole Miss bowl record of 343 yards to lead the Rebels to the first bowl victory in 15 years with a 20-17 victory over Texas Tech in the 1986 Independence Bowl.

Young would break five school bowl records, all held by former standout Archie Manning, on his way to being named Offensive Player of the Game. Young completed 31-of-50 passes and had 314 yards of total offense in 62 plays. All were new Rebel marks.

Ole Miss lead 17-7 at halftime as Bryan Owen hit a 21-yard field goal with one second left in the first half.

Texas Tech pulled to within 17-14 early in the third quarter when Merv Scurlak returned an interception 33 yards for a score. The Red Raiders then tied the game on Scott Segrist's 19-yard field goal with 14:52 left in the game.

Young and the Rebels would answer on the next possession with a 48-yard field goal by Owen with 12:16 remaining to break the 17-17 deadlock.

1989 LIBERTY BOWL

Ole Miss 42
Air Force 29

John Darnell

In a game billed to be an offensive shootout, Ole Miss outlasted Air Force 42-29 in the 31st annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn.

Chucky Mullins, the defensive back who was paralyzed in an October 28, game with Vanderbilt, visited the Ole Miss locker room prior to the game in his first trip outside Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis since the injury.

The visit seemed to energize the Rebels as they raced to a 28-9 halftime lead.

Liberty Bowl MVP Randy Baldwin rushed for 177 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns, and John Darnell passed for 261 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 55 first downs and 1,046 yards of total offense. Ole Miss held a 30-25 advantage in first downs, and a 533-513 edge in total yards.

Sophomore quarterback Romaro Miller returned from a broken collarbone suffered three weeks earlier to pass for 216 yards and three touchdowns to lead Ole Miss to a 35-18 win over Texas Tech in the 1998 Independence Bowl.

2009 COTTON BOWL

Ole Miss 47
Texas Tech 34

Jevan Snead

Behind Jevan Snead's passing, Dexter McCluster's squirming runs and some big returns by Marshay Green, No. 20 Ole Miss overcame an early deficit and beat No. 8 Texas Tech 47-34 Friday in the final Cotton Bowl played in the stadium of the same name.

The Red Raiders (11-2) converted a pair of early turnovers into a 14-0 lead, but Snead led the Rebels to touchdowns on their next three drives, followed by a go-ahead field goal shortly before halftime. Once Green returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown early in the third quarter, Ole Miss (9-4) was well on its way to capping coach Houston Nutt's first season in grand style.

This was Ole Miss' sixth straight win, matching its longest streak since 2003, when Eli Manning was a senior. That also was the last time the Rebels had been to a bowl.

2010 COTTON BOWL

Ole Miss 21
Oklahoma State 7

Dexter McCluster

Dexter McCluster gave Ole Miss fans a finale to remember, rushing for 184 yards and two touchdowns, including the go-ahead 2-yard run on a direct snap with 4:03 left as the Rebels beat No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7 in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday.

McCluster also had an 86-yard TD run in the second quarter after the senior had already become the first Southeastern Conference player with 1,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season.

Ole Miss (9-4) had five turnovers in the game, but Oklahoma State had six in the fourth quarter, and seven overall.

McCluster was the obvious standout, the game's offensive MVP for the second year in a row. He had 34 carries along with five catches for 45 yards. He leaves Ole Miss with 3,923 career all-purpose yards, second in school history behind Deuce McAllister's 4,889.

After becoming only Ole Miss' fourth 1,000-yard rusher on his third carry of the game, McCluster surpassed 500 yards receiving on the final play of the first quarter. Yet, his best was still to come.

McCluster's 86-yard TD run in the second quarter came on a handoff from freshman quarterback Nathan Stanley. McCluster went to the right and through a gap, running untouched for the second-longest run in the 74-year history of the Cotton Bowl.

Ole Miss 38

Bo Wallace

Six weeks after closing out its regular season by defeating No. 24 Mississippi State to bring home the Egg Bowl trophy for the first time since 2008, Ole Miss (7-6) took down Pitt in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., 38-17. It was Ole Miss' first bowl appearance since topping Oklahoma State 21-7 in the 2010 AT&T Cotton Bowl. The 38 points scored by Ole Miss is a BBVA Compass Bowl record.

Ole Miss sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace, the BBVA Compass Bowl MVP, finished the game 22-32 passing for 151 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. The Rebels spread the ball around through the air with three receivers catching five or more passes. Freshman running back I'Tavius Mathers led Ole Miss on the ground with six carries for 96 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, the longest in BBVA Compass Bowl history.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior middle linebacker Mike Marry led Ole Miss with seven tackles, four tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

2013 MUSIC CITY BOWL

Ole Miss 25
Georgia Tech 17

Bo Wallace

Ole Miss junior quarterback Bo Wallace threw one touchdown and ran for two more, and the Rebels' defense held the Georgia Tech triple-option attack in check en route to a 25-17 victory at LP Field in the 2013 Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Rebels' victory was their sixth straight bowl victory, which was currently the longest in the country.

Wallace, who was named the game's MVP, finished the game 22-32 for 256 yards, as well as a career-high 86 yards rushing on 13 carries. The Pulaski, Tenn., native's 342 total yards Monday pushed his season total to 3,701, topping Eli Manning's school record of 3,572 yards set in 2003.

Junior Donte Moncrief led the Ole Miss receiving corps with six catches for 113 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, junior linebacker Serderius Bryant and sophomore defensive tackle Issac Gross each had eight tackles, while freshman Tony Conner and senior defensive end D.T. Shackelford had seven tackles. Bryant led the Rebels with a team-high six solo tackles, and Gross recorded a team-high three tackles for loss.

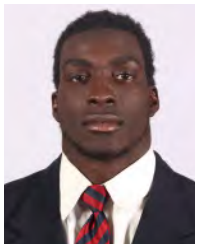
2014 PEACH BOWL

TCU 42
Ole Miss 3



Senquez Golson

A dominant effort by No. 6 TCU on both sides of the ball was too much to overcome for No. 9 Ole Miss, as the Rebels (9-4) lost 42-3 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

The nation's second-leading offense, the Horned Frogs scored early and often, and the defense suffocated the Ole Miss offense, holding the Rebels to a season-low 10 first downs and 129 yards of total offense.

Senior cornerback Senquez Golson tied the school record with his 10th interception of the season, the 16th of his career, which is tied for third place in Ole Miss history. It also helped set up the Rebels' lone score of the game, a 27-yard field goal by freshman kicker Gary Wunderlich.

Playing in its third straight bowl game for the first time since 1998-2000, Ole Miss had its six-game bowl winning streak snapped, which was tied with Florida State for the longest in the nation.

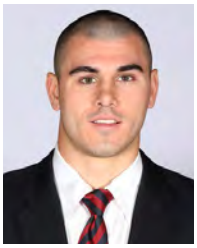
2016 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 48
Oklahoma State 20



Chad Kelly

How sweet it was. No. 12 Ole Miss dominated No. 16 Oklahoma State, 48-20, in the 82nd annual Allstate Sugar Bowl.

It was a record-breaking night for the Rebel offense, but the defense wouldn't be outshined, holding the nation's 18th-ranked offense to its lowest point total of the season.

Junior quarterback and Sugar Bowl MVP Chad Kelly connected on four touchdown passes, the most by a Rebel quarterback in bowl history. He fired three touchdown passes to junior star receiver Laquon Treadwell, who finished with six catches for 71 yards.

As a unit the Rebels put up 554 of total offense, the most of any Ole Miss team in any bowl game, and also broke the previous record for points in a bowl game.

2021 OUTBACK BOWL

Ole Miss 26
Indiana 20

Matt Corral

In a season filled with uncertainty, fireworks, heartbreak and adversity, the Ole Miss Rebels restored their rich tradition of postseason football, earning their first bowl bid in five years.

Lane Kiffin's squad made the most of it, putting together a valiant effort in Raymond James Stadium to knock off the No. 7 ranked Indiana Hoosiers 26-20 in the 2021 Outback Bowl, concluding the 2020 football season with their first bowl win since the 2016 Sugar Bowl.

Down four key playmakers on offense, the Rebels totaled 493 yards of total offense against one of the nation's top defenses. Matt Corral completed 30 of 44 passes for 342 yards and two scores through the air. He became the fifth in school history to eclipse the 3,000 yard mark and tied Eli Manning for third in school history with 29 touchdown passes single season.

2022 SUGAR BOWL

Baylor 21
Ole Miss 7

Luke Altmyer

The Ole Miss football team refused to quit in the face of adversity after losing their leader early in the Allstate Sugar Bowl game. In the end, the Baylor Bears used a late surge to knock off the Rebels 21-7 inside the Caesars Superdome.

After being thrust into relief after an injury to Matt Corral, Luke Altmyer completed 15 of 29 passes for 174 yards and threw a second half touchdown pass to Braylon Sanders. Unfortunately, that was the lone Rebel score of the day in the defeat.

The Rebel defense, led by Chance Campbell's team-high 10 tackles, kept Ole Miss in it. The Bears didn't record their first points on offense until the fourth quarter, but two late touchdowns by the Baylor attack sealed the fate of the shorthanded Rebels in New Orleans.

Ole Miss battled to the very end but were unable to overcome five turnovers as their comeback bid fell short in a 42-25 TaxAct Texas Bowl defeat to Texas Tech.

The Rebels outgained Texas Tech 558-484, setting a new school record for total yards in a bowl game, but went 2-7 on fourth-down attempts to finish their 2022 campaign 8-5.

Quarterback Jaxson Dart fueled the offense, breaking the Ole Miss records for total offense (427 yards) and passing (361 yards) in a bowl game while scoring twice through the air and once on the ground. Tavius Robinson helped keep the Rebels in the game on defense, forcing two fumbles with a sack on the evening.

Duke 20

Jaxson Dart

The TaxSlayer Gator Bowl wasn't too taxing for Ole Miss, as the Rebels dominated Duke 52-20, leading from wire-to-wire to finish the 2024 season at 10-3.

Ole Miss notched back-to-back 10-win seasons for just the second time in school history and have won 10 games in three of the last four seasons under head coach Lane Kiffin. The Rebels improved to 27-15 on the field in bowl games, including 13-4 in their last 17.

Ole Miss outgained Duke 589 to 280, holding the Blue Devils to just 44 yards rushing despite zero Rebel sacks figuring into the numbers. The Rebel offense racked up 438 yards through the air and 151 on the ground, while Duke threw for 236.

Jaxson Dart was outstanding in his final game as a Rebel, going 27-for-35 through the air and rushing 12 times for 447 yards of total offense, four touchdowns and no interceptions.

PLAYOFF QUARTERFINAL

2026 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 39
Georgia 34

Trinidad Chambliss

Ole Miss punched its ticket to the College Football Playoff Semifinals after taking down No. 3 Georgia 39-34, in a thrilling Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Rebels (13-1) erased a nine-point halftime deficit, orchestrating one of the more dramatic second half comebacks in recent CFP history. Georgia had won 53 straight when leading at the half and 75 straight when leading after three quarters.

Lucas Carneiro and Trinidad Chambliss were the heroes of the game. Chambliss threw for over 300 yards and two touchdowns while Carneiro hit three field goals (two that broke the Sugar Bowl record for longest FG) including the game winner with six seconds left. Chambliss, the Sugar Bowl Offensive Player of the Game, broke the bowl record for consecutive completions with 13 in a row.

NOTE: The overall record for each season includes bowl victories. However, the total points for each year through 2001 includes only regular-season contests. For the years the Rebels played in a bowl game prior to 2002, the points are not included because the NCAA did not count bowl game statistics.*

HOMECOMING AT OLE MISS

Homecoming at Ole Miss was formed as a weekend when alumni would reunite on the Oxford campus. It wasn't until 1924 that Homecoming became centered around a Rebel football game.

November 22, 1924, is recognized as the first official Homecoming football celebration at Ole Miss. On that day, the Rebels defeated Mississippi College, 10-6. Since then, the Homecoming football game and Homecoming weekend have been an annual event at Ole Miss.

Homecoming is a tradition on nearly every collegiate campus. At Ole Miss, it holds a special place in the hearts of all University alumni and current students. In 1928, the University students felt it a privilege to invite all former graduates back to the Ole Miss grounds.

"We bid hearty welcome to the alumni on the campus today," wrote J.P. Dale, the editor of The Mississippian. "It is always a pleasure for the student body to receive you, and to attempt to make you feel at home here as of yore. There are many ties that bind the old grad to his Alma Mater, but the greatest of all the ties, and the one lasting tie, is that feeling of love and veneration of the traditions of Ole Miss."

The first Homecoming parade is believed to have taken place in 1930. That year, students held a pep rally followed by a huge bonfire where freshmen dressed in pajamas and joined the Ole Miss marching band as the procession continued on toward downtown.

The Homecoming parade, which has a wide range of participants from the University, still takes place today with the help of the Oxford community. The University celebrates by inducting five new members into the Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame. It also honors tradition by selecting a Homecoming Queen and her court.

The Rebels have found much success when hosting a foe on Homecoming. Ole Miss owns an impressive 74-17-2 record in Homecoming games after vacated wins. The Rebels have won 37 of the last 44 Homecoming contests on the field.

CHARLIE CONERLY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Ole Miss football standout Charlie Conerly was an unassuming man – never one to blow his own horn. He rarely celebrated after scoring a touchdown. He would simply hand the ball to the referee and trot to the sideline.

"Charlie was a shy man," said New York Giants teammate Frank Gifford. "He didn't want to stand out. He didn't even like trophies. He was very sensitive about receiving praise."

Off the field, Conerly also remained reserved. Perian Conerly said that her late husband wouldn't understand why the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship at the University of Mississippi was named in his honor, but he would be thrilled about the opportunity the scholarship provided.

"Charlie never would have gone to college without his football scholarship at Ole Miss," she said. "That opportunity changed his life."

One of the greatest football players ever to wear an Ole Miss uniform and a beloved alumnus, Conerly will be remembered for generations to come through the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship. The $100,000 endowment was set up by his wife for deserving student-athletes.

"The endowment is a widow's mite when compared to other donations, but it's a very important scholarship for future players," she said.

A Clarksdale, Miss., native, Conerly passed away Feb. 13, 1996, after a lengthy illness. Affectionately known as Chunkin' Charlie, the former quarterback thrilled Ole Miss fans as he led the Rebels to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in 1947 and a victory over Texas Christian University in the Delta Bowl.

Conerly earned three letters at Ole Miss, playing in 1942, 1946 and 1947, earning All-America honors his senior season and All-SEC accolades twice. He interrupted his undergraduate career to serve with the U.S. Marines in World War II.

After graduation, Conerly joined the NFL's New York Giants, leading them to the 1956 NFL Championship. He was named 1948 NFL Rookie of the Year and the League's Most Valuable Player in 1959. Conerly ended his career in 1961 with 1,418 career completions, including 173 touchdown passes. His Giants number 42 was retired in 1962. "Charlie had an incredible arm and a great feel for the game," said Gifford. "He was a tremendous athlete, and by the end of his career, he was a sports hero for New York." Perian Conerly authored "Backseat Quarterback" (Doubleday 1963), detailing the couple's experiences during his professional football years. After retiring, Conerly and his wife returned to Mississippi, and they often traveled to Oxford on football weekends.

Conerly's honors include induction into the National College Football Hall of Fame, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame, Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame, and Ole Miss Athletic Hall of Fame. He also received the Distinguished American Award from the Ole Miss Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and was selected by Rebel fans as a back on the Ole Miss Football Team of the Century. As a college player, Conerly was also named the Atlanta Touchdown Club's SEC Back of the Year and the Nashville Banner's SEC Player of the Year.

A prestigious trophy named in his honor, the C Spire Conerly Trophy, is awarded annually to Mississippi's most outstanding collegiate football player. Designed to be the Mississippi equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, the award is open to all Mississippi players, regardless of school size or position. The original bronze sculpture is permanently housed in the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum in Jackson, and a replica is on display at Ole Miss in Hollingsworth-Manning Hall, the school's athletics memorabilia area located on the second floor of the Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center.

CHUCKY MULLINS SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT

The Chucky Mullins Scholarship is awarded to two groups of students. The first group is students who have a physical handicap, which falls under Vocational Rehabilitation guidelines. They must be enrolled full-time. The Office of Financial Aid works with Student Disability Services, Admissions and Enrollment Services to promote this scholarship so that qualifying students will come forward to inquire about it. The second group is students who have exceptional financial need. They must be full-time undergraduate students who are Mississippi residents or residents of Russellville, Alabama. The Office of Financial Aid runs reports of entering freshmen who have completed the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to find students who demonstrate financial need and have no resources to put toward their costs of education.

All students are awarded $2,000 per year for up to four years as long as they maintain a minimum 2.5 resident GPA and full-time enrollment, and have not yet received a bachelor's degree. From the 2003-04 academic year through 2018-19, we awarded more than 180 unduplicated students the Chucky Mullins Scholarship. A total of 14 new recipients were selected for the 2018-19 academic year.

To contribute to the Chucky Mullins Scholarship endowment, contact the UM Foundation at (662) 915-5944 or umf@olemiss.edu.

J.W "WOBBLE" DAVIDSON SCHOLARSHIP

It's a funny thing about sports and nicknames. They seem to go hand-in-hand. Whether it's quarterbacks named "Easy" or linemen named "Slim", a nickname follows you for the rest of your life. Such was the case with J.W. "Wobble" Davidson.

Never one to let the spotlight hit him, Davidson spent three years playing left end for Ole Miss, before returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach. He gave up the idea of playing pro football to enter the Marine Corps to fight in World War II. He never thought twice about it. He never even left Oxford, returning after the war to spend his days at the place he called home.

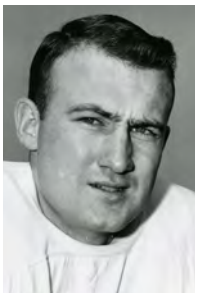
Davidson's love for Oxford and his alma mater proved just as great in his family life as it did in his professional life. A proud father of two, Wobble, his wife Sara, son Don and daughter Debra all attended Ole Miss. Davidson spent 11 years as head tennis coach and 23 years as the M-Club Advisor, mentoring student-athletes into productive members of society. He and his family even lived in the athletic dorms on campus.

It was his love for Ole Miss that the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship fund was established. Given to the children of former Ole Miss letterwinners, the scholarship helps make sure that those who love the University as much as Wobble will always have the opportunity for their children to attend Ole Miss.

Davidson graduated from Ole Miss in 1942, earning three letters in football, three in track and two in basketball for the Rebels. A member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame, Davidson also earned his master's degree from Ole Miss.

To learn more about the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship Fund, including details about making a tax-deductible contribution, contact Clay Cavett at the UM Alumni Office at 662-915-7375.

LARRY L. JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP



Larry L. Johnson of Jackson wants to help young men benefit from the same opportunity in life he received: a football scholarship to the University of Mississippi that enabled him to participate in the sport he loved while pursuing degrees for a successful career.

The retired BellSouth executive - whose football career at Forest High School in Scott County captured the attention of UM coaches - has established a scholarship endowment with more than $100,000. The first in his family to attend college, Johnson received an athletics scholarship that allowed him to earn two business degrees and play wingback and outside linebacker on three championship football teams (1961, '62 and '63).

Desiring to give back to his college and home community, Johnson's scholarship agreement stipulates that preference should be given to Scott County football signees when possible.

Known to the Ole Miss family as "Larry Leo," Johnson has been active in the M-Club alumni chapter for athletes. He served on the M-Club's board of directors and has organized and directed many team reunions. As Student M-Club president in 1963, Johnson helped establish the J.W. Davidson Scholarship fund to honor the legendary Ole Miss coach. He also is an Ole Miss Athletics Foundation member.

He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in business and is a past chair of the Business Advisory Board at the UM School of Business Administration.

An active civic leader in Jackson, Johnson continues to give of his time and resources to the community in many areas since retiring from BellSouth in 2000 after 33 years as an executive with the company. Both of Johnson's sons, Rick and Scott, graduated from Ole Miss. Larry and his wife, Rita Parks Johnson, live in Madison, and they have a blended family of five, with multiple grandchildren.

JOEY EMBRY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

During football camps under sun-drenched skies on the Oxford campus, Joey Embry decided he wanted to be an Ole Miss Rebel. In 1995, at the end of his stellar prep career at Bruce (Miss.) High School, the scholarship offer came.

Embry was a member of the Rebel football team for two years before his tragic death on May 19, 1998, when he drowned just months before he was expected to be a major contributor on the offensive line.

His Rebel teammates dedicated the 1998 season to his memory and wore Embry's name and number on their helmets.

Family and friends are keeping his spirit alive through the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund, established to help student-athletes at The University of Mississippi. "I think Joey would be really proud of the scholarship fund," said his mother, Gwen Embry, "not because it is honoring him, but because it will help so many other students."

Embry's roommate and fellow teammate Bobby Killion, a former Ole Miss center, said, "Joey touched the lives of so many people while having an influence on those who came in contact with him. He was a great man and is missed by a lot of people. I know I'll miss him for the rest of my life."

Embry left a strong impression on the Ole Miss community, providing leadership both on and off the playing field. As a business administration major, he excelled academically, making the UMAA Honor Roll and the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He also was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA).

In addition to the scholarship fund, Weyerhaeuser Co. donated equipment to Ole Miss' Starnes Athletic Training Center in memory of the Ole Miss football player.

Individuals and organizations can contribute to the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund through The University of Mississippi Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, MS 38677; phone 800-340-9542; e-mail umf@olemiss.edu.

WESLEY WALLS SCHOLARSHIP

Former Ole Miss All-America tight end Wesley Walls of Pontotoc, Miss., and his wife, Christy, have endowed a football scholarship at Ole Miss.

The $100,000 gift is used to provide a football scholarship to any Ole Miss signee from Pontotoc County.

Walls, a five-time Pro Bowler with the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League, enjoyed a 14-year NFL career, playing with San Francisco and New Orleans prior to joining the Panthers. He retired in 2004 after one season with the Green Bay Packers.

"I received so much from Ole Miss, not only an education and a chance to play college football, but also as a person," Walls said. "I met my wife here and we truly love Ole Miss and her people. This scholarship represents a way to come back and help Pontotoc County. There are a lot of good athletes over there."

At Ole Miss, Walls earned four letters and excelled both on the field and in the classroom. He came to Oxford in 1985 as a defensive end, but also played tight end his senior campaign when he became one of the nation's few two-way players in 1988.

Following his senior year, Walls was selected first team All-America at tight end by the Associated Press. He was also a first team All-SEC pick, was selected Mississippi's Amateur Athlete of the Year and was chosen as one of three permanent Ole Miss team captains. Walls is a 2014 inductee of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Off the field, Walls compiled a 3.41 GPA in General Engineering, earned Academic All-America honors, was a three-time Academic All-SEC pick, was selected Colonel Rebel at Ole Miss, was named to the University of Mississippi Hall of Fame and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. He was selected as one of 11 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes and was chosen to give the response at the awards dinner in New York City.

Walls finished his NFL career with 450 catches for 5,291 yards and 54 touchdowns. Upon his retirement, he was considered one of the premier tight ends in the game.

PARK STEVENS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Park Stevens, a native of Columbus, Mississippi, and a graduate of New Hope High School, walked on to the Ole Miss football team in the spring of 2013 after spending two seasons at East Central Community College. He participated in spring drills with the Rebels and was looking forward to his first season with a Southeastern Conference team. Stevens' hopes were cut short by a tragic automobile accident July 3, 2013, when Stevens died instantly at the age of 20.

"Park had such a magnetic personality. He didn't meet a stranger," former East Central Community College coach Brian Anderson told The Clarion-Ledger. "He was just an outstanding young man. He just had personality for days."

His parents, Dean and Gail, established the Park Stevens Memorial Scholarship Fund with the UM Foundation in his memory. Gifts may be made by sending a check with the fund noted in the memo line to the UM Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, Miss. 38677; or by visiting www.umfoundation.com/makeagift.
